

UK High School Foreign Language Basics Quiz

Foreign Languages · Answer Key · 9 Questions

---

1. Which foreign language is most commonly studied at GCSE level in England?

- A) German
- B) Spanish
- C) French
- D) Mandarin

2. What is the primary purpose of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR)?

- A) To rank countries by linguistic diversity
- B) To standardize language proficiency levels
- C) To promote specific language learning methods
- D) To fund language education programs

3. Historically, which major linguistic event significantly influenced the vocabulary of the English language, introducing thousands of words from a Romance language?

- A) The Roman Invasion
- B) The Viking Raids
- C) The Norman Conquest
- D) The British Empire's expansion

4. What is a key cognitive benefit often associated with learning a foreign language?

- A) Improved physical coordination
- B) Enhanced mathematical ability
- C) Increased problem-solving skills
- D) Better short-term memory recall for numbers

5. In Wales, what is the official status of the Welsh language alongside English?

- A) It is a minority language without official status
- B) It is an optional subject in schools only
- C) It holds co-official status with English
- D) It is being phased out of official use

6. Which of the following terms refers to words that have a similar form and meaning in different languages due to a shared origin?

- A) Homophones
- B) Antonyms
- C) Cognates
- D) Synonyms

7. According to the National Curriculum for England, which Key Stage requires pupils to be taught a modern foreign language?

- A) Key Stage 1 (ages 5-7)
- B) Key Stage 2 (ages 7-11)
- C) Key Stage 3 (ages 11-14)
- D) Key Stage 4 (ages 14-16)

8. Which language family does German belong to?

- A) Romance
- B) Slavic
- C) Germanic
- D) Uralic

9. What is a 'loanword' in linguistics?

- A) A word borrowed from a dictionary
- B) A word that has been adopted from one language and incorporated into another
- C) A word used only in informal speech
- D) A word that has lost its original meaning over time