Diplomacy and International Relations

Social Studies · Answer Key · 5 Questions

1. What is an ambassador?

A) An official representative of one country sent to represent it in another country
B) An elected mayor of a major international city
C) A military general who commands joint international armed forces
D) A judge appointed to serve on an international criminal court

2. Where is the official headquarters of the United Nations located?

A) Geneva, Switzerland
B) London, United Kingdom
C) New York City, United States
D) Paris, France

3. What term describes a formal, legally binding written agreement between sovereign nations?

A) Decree
B) Treaty
C) Resolution
D) Manifesto

4. What is the main purpose of diplomatic immunity?

A) To give diplomats free public transportation in host nations
B) To ensure diplomats can fulfill their duties without fear of harassment or coercion by host governments
C) To allow foreign diplomats to collect local taxes
D) To permit diplomats to break local criminal laws without any consequences

5. Which global organization was established in 1945 after World War II to maintain international peace and security?

A) League of Nations
B) European Union
C) United Nations
D) World Trade Organization

Quixly | This material was auto-generated. Quixly is not liable for errors or omissions. Visit quixlylearn.com to report corrections.