

East Asian Religions Quiz

World Religions · Practice Test · 10 Questions

1. Which philosophy founded by Confucius focuses on family respect and social harmony?

- A) Taoism
- B) Confucianism
- C) Shinto
- D) Buddhism

2. What is the main place of worship for followers of Shinto in Japan called?

- A) Shrine
- B) Mosque
- C) Church
- D) Synagogue

3. In Buddhism, what is the term for the state of perfect peace and end of suffering?

- A) Karma
- B) Dharma
- C) Nirvana
- D) Yoga

4. Which religion is considered the indigenous spirituality of Japan and involves the worship of 'kami' or spirits?

- A) Taoism
- B) Shinto
- C) Confucianism
- D) Sikhism

5. Who is considered the founder of Buddhism?

- A) Laozi
- B) Confucius
- C) Siddhartha Gautama
- D) Amaterasu

6. The concept of 'Yin and Yang', representing balance in the world, is a key part of which belief system?

- A) Taoism
- B) Shinto
- C) Judaism
- D) Hinduism

7. Which East Asian country is historically the birthplace of Confucianism?

- A) Japan
- B) South Korea
- C) China
- D) Vietnam

8. What is the sacred text of Taoism called?

- A) The Analects
- B) The Tao Te Ching
- C) The Tripitaka
- D) The Kojiki

9. Buddhism spread to East Asia from which other region?

- A) Europe
- B) South America
- C) India
- D) Africa

10. Which teacher and philosopher is known for emphasizing the importance of education and moral character in China?

- A) Confucius
- B) Siddhartha Gautama
- C) Laozi
- D) Jimmu