

Little Explorers: Protecting Our Planet

Conservation Biology · Answer Key · 9 Questions

1. What does it mean to 'conserve' animals and plants?

- A) Make them into toys
- B) Protect them and their homes
- C) Draw pictures of them
- D) Teach them to sing

2. Why is it important to protect animals and their homes?

- A) So we can play with them all the time
- B) To make sure they stay healthy and don't disappear
- C) To keep them only in zoos
- D) So we can sell them

3. What does 'endangered' mean for an animal?

- A) It loves to dance
- B) It is very rare and might vanish forever
- C) It has many stripes
- D) It only lives in a zoo

4. What is a 'habitat' for an animal?

- A) Its favourite food
- B) Its bed in a house
- C) Its natural home in the wild
- D) Its name tag

5. What can we do with old plastic bottles and paper to help the Earth?

- A) Throw them in the ocean
- B) Recycle them into new things
- C) Bury them in the garden
- D) Burn them

6. Where should we put rubbish like sweet wrappers to help animals and nature?

- A) On the ground
- B) In a river
- C) In a rubbish bin
- D) In a tree

7. Besides giving us shade, what important thing do trees do for animals and humans?

- A) They make loud noises
- B) They provide the air we breathe and homes for animals
- C) They grow toys
- D) They can fly

8. What is it called when we make the air, water, or land dirty?

- A) Playing
- B) Pollution
- C) Cleaning
- D) Sleeping

9. Which of these Australian animals, known for eating eucalyptus leaves, is endangered in some parts of Australia?

- A) Kangaroo
- B) Emu
- C) Koala
- D) Wombat