

Founding Our Country's Rules

Constitutional Law · Practice Test · 21 Questions

1. What is the name of the most important rule book for our country, like a giant instruction manual?

- A) The Happy Book
- B) The Constitution
- C) The Story Book
- D) The Big Rules

2. Who helped write down the big rules for our country a very long time ago?

- A) Magicians
- B) Pirates
- C) Founding Fathers
- D) Superheroes

3. The Constitution says that all people are equal. What does 'equal' mean in this big rule book?

- A) Everyone gets the same toys
- B) Everyone is treated fairly
- C) Everyone has the same hair colour
- D) Everyone can fly

4. What kind of government does the Constitution help to create in Australia?

- A) A kingdom ruled by a queen
- B) A democracy where people vote
- C) A playground where everyone plays
- D) A secret club

5. The Constitution protects our freedom to say what we think. What is this freedom called?

- A) Freedom to sing loudly
- B) Freedom of speech
- C) Freedom to wear pyjamas
- D) Freedom to eat ice cream

6. What is one of the main jobs of the government, as guided by the Constitution?

- A) To paint the sky blue
- B) To make sure everyone has a pet
- C) To protect the people and the country
- D) To invent new colours

7. The Constitution divides power between different parts of the government. One part makes the laws. What is this part called?

- A) The Sleeping Department
- B) The Parliament
- C) The Toy Makers
- D) The Dream Team

8. Another part of the government in Australia, guided by the Constitution, is responsible for making sure laws are followed. What is this part called?

- A) The Cookie Committee
- B) The Police and Courts
- C) The Storytellers
- D) The Music Makers

9. The Constitution includes a special part that talks about the Queen or King of Australia. What is this part called?

- A) The Royal Rumble
- B) The Head of State
- C) The King's Cake
- D) The Royal Parade

10. When Australia became a country, the Constitution was very important for bringing different states together. What are these states called?

- A) Happy Lands
- B) Territories
- C) Colours
- D) Playgrounds

11. The Constitution protects important rights for people in Australia. One right is to have a fair trial if accused of something. What does a 'fair trial' mean?

- A) Getting extra playtime
- B) Being judged justly and with no bias
- C) Receiving a special prize
- D) Being allowed to wear a costume

12. What is the name of the highest court in Australia that interprets the Constitution?

- A) The Playground Court
- B) The High Court
- C) The Fun Court
- D) The Sleepy Court

13. The Constitution has rules about how the government spends money. This is often called what?

- A) The Pocket Money Fund
- B) The Budget
- C) The Treasure Chest
- D) The Candy Jar

14. In Australia, for the Constitution to be changed, it needs to be voted on by the people. What is this vote called?

- A) A Lucky Dip
- B) A Referendum
- C) A Game of Tag
- D) A Guessing Game

15. The Constitution has rules about who can vote. This ensures that many people have a say in how the country is run. What is this called?

- A) The Voting Game
- B) Democracy
- C) The Singing Contest
- D) The Hugging Club

16. The Constitution establishes the idea that the government's power is not absolute. What does it mean if power is 'not absolute'?

- A) The government can do anything they want
- B) The government has limits on its power
- C) The government is always tired
- D) The government only makes up rules for fun

17. The Constitution protects the freedom of the press, which means news reporters can share information. What does 'press' refer to in this context?

- A) The buttons on a remote control
- B) Newspapers, TV, and online news
- C) A gentle hug
- D) The art of making pancakes

18. Australia's Constitution was written based on ideas from other countries. Which country's legal system was a big influence?

- A) France
- B) The United Kingdom
- C) China
- D) Brazil

19. The Constitution has rules about how laws are made. This process involves different parts of the government working together. What is this process called?

- A) The Law Making Machine
- B) Legislation
- C) The Recipe Book
- D) The Magic Wand

20. The Constitution ensures that the government is accountable to the people. What does 'accountable' mean in this context?

- A) The government is always right
- B) The government must explain its actions to the people
- C) The government gets to eat all the cake
- D) The government only plays games

21. What is the purpose of having a written Constitution?

- A) To make things confusing
- B) To clearly state the rules and limits of government
- C) To hide secrets
- D) To tell bedtime stories