

Understanding Diplomacy for Kids

Social Studies · Answer Key · 8 Questions

1. What does diplomacy mostly help countries do?

- A) Play games together
- B) Talk to solve problems peacefully
- C) Build tall buildings
- D) Sell many toys

2. Who is a person that represents their country in another country to help keep peace?

- A) A chef
- B) A diplomat
- C) A doctor
- D) A bus driver

3. Where do diplomats often work in another country?

- A) At a school
- B) At an embassy
- C) At a park
- D) At a zoo

4. What is a main goal of diplomacy between countries?

- A) To start arguments
- B) To keep peace
- C) To make loud noises
- D) To ignore each other

5. What is a written agreement between two or more countries called?

- A) A secret message
- B) A song
- C) A treaty
- D) A puzzle

6. What does it mean to 'negotiate' in diplomacy?

- A) To run a race
- B) To sing a song loudly
- C) To talk and try to find a solution
- D) To paint a picture

7. What is the United Nations (UN)?

- A) A big sports team
- B) A group of countries working together for peace
- C) A type of food
- D) A special kind of animal

8. Why do countries have ambassadors?

- A) To cook food for everyone
- B) To represent their country and talk with another country
- C) To teach children in other countries
- D) To build roads in other countries