

Understanding How We Interact

Social Psychology · Practice Test · 8 Questions

---

1. When you play nicely with others and take turns, what are you showing?

- A) Being selfish
- B) Good sharing
- C) Being loud
- D) Hiding toys

2. When someone is sad, what is a kind thing you can do to help them feel better?

- A) Ignore them
- B) Give them a hug or a kind word
- C) Take their toy
- D) Laugh at them

3. What is it called when you like to spend time with other children?

- A) Being alone
- B) Being shy
- C) Being social
- D) Being grumpy

4. When you share your toys with a friend, what good behavior are you practicing?

- A) Keeping things to yourself
- B) Being a good friend
- C) Taking turns only when asked
- D) Not playing at all

5. What do we call people who are our friends and we enjoy playing with?

- A) Strangers
- B) Enemies
- C) Playmates
- D) Siblings

6. If you see someone drop their crayons, what is a helpful thing to do?

- A) Walk away
- B) Help them pick them up
- C) Take their crayons
- D) Tell them they dropped them and leave

7. What is it called when you listen to what others say when you are talking together?

- A) Interrupting loudly
- B) Ignoring everyone
- C) Being a good listener
- D) Talking over them

8. When you want to make new friends, what is something you can do?

- A) Hide in a corner
- B) Smile and say hello
- C) Yell at them
- D) Push them away