

Canada's Global Spotlight: Diplomacy, Arts, and International Accolades in 2025

Canadian Culture · Answer Key · 12 Questions

1. In 2025, Canada is set to be the Focus Country for the Producer Hub at the Asian Contents & Film Market (ACFM). Which Canadian organization is partnering with ACFM for this initiative?

- A) National Arts Centre (NAC)
- B) Telefilm Canada
- C) Canada Media Fund (CMF)
- D) Canadian Film Centre (CFC)

2. The National Arts Centre (NAC) will present a diverse lineup of Canadian performing artists at Expo 2025 in Osaka, Japan. Which of the following artists is NOT listed as part of the Canadian representation at Expo 2025?

- A) Jeremy Dutcher
- B) Lisa LeBlanc
- C) Shak resident S'Aida
- D) The Tragically Hip

3. As of September 2025, who has been appointed as Canada's Ambassador to Germany?

- A) David Lametti
- B) Vera Alexander
- C) Mark Wiseman
- D) Kirsten Hillman

4. The retrospective exhibition "Erica Rutherford: Her Lives and Works" is scheduled to tour Canada, with a notable stop at which national institution in June 2025?

- A) Art Gallery of Ontario
- B) Montreal Museum of Fine Arts
- C) National Gallery of Canada
- D) Vancouver Art Gallery

5. Canada joined which international fund in 2017, enabling bilateral projects with member states without requiring a third partner, and has supported over 30 projects to date?

- A) New Dawn Fund
- B) Eurimages
- C) European Audiovisual Observatory
- D) Proimágenes Colombia

6. In 2025, Canada's Minister of Foreign Affairs is Anita Anand. Which of the following is a significant event she has been involved in or hosted recently?

A) Hosting a G7 summit in Ontario amidst rising trade tensions with the U.S.

B) Leading negotiations for a new trade agreement with China.

C) Announcing major climate change initiatives at COP30.

D) Mediating peace talks between Russia and Ukraine.

7. Which Canadian author is shortlisted for the 2025 Booker Prize for their novel "Flesh"?

A) Margaret Atwood

B) David Szalay

C) Maria Reva

D) Anne Michaels

8. In the realm of philanthropic climate action, the "Clean Economy Fund" received a significant boost in late 2024, building on a commitment made by which group?

A) A consortium of individual donors.

B) A consortium of major Canadian universities.

C) A consortium of international aid organizations.

D) A consortium of donors to create the fund.

9. The Asian Contents & Film Market (ACFM) has named Canada as its 2025 Focus Country. This initiative is also celebrating which significant bilateral event?

A) The 50th anniversary of diplomatic ties between Canada and South Korea.

B) The 60th anniversary of diplomatic ties between Canada and South Korea.

C) The 70th anniversary of diplomatic ties between Canada and Japan.

D) The 50th anniversary of cultural exchange between Canada and China.

10. Which Canadian artist, known for their work with changeable materials like film and photo paper, is expected to have a significant international presence in 2025, having exhibited at prestigious events like the Whitney Biennial?

A) Annie Briard

B) Lotus L. Kang

C) Lucy Tulugarjuk

D) Corri-Lynn Tetz

11. As of early 2026, Peter Gilgan's foundation has made significant contributions to climate philanthropy. How much did his foundation donate to create the Peter Gilgan Centre for Early Cancer Detection Research?

- A) $10 million
- B) $40 million
- C) $50 million
- D) $60 million

12. In the context of international film co-productions, Canada maintains approximately how many official co-production treaties with countries around the world?

- A) Over 100
- B) Around 60
- C) Fewer than 30
- D) Exactly 40