

Latin America & Caribbean Politics: Rightward Shift, Cultural Trends & Local Politics

Politics · Practice Test · 10 Questions

---

1. Which trend has been observed in several Latin American countries in recent years, indicating a shift away from previous political leanings?

- A) A significant increase in left-wing governments.
- B) A move towards more authoritarian regimes across the board.
- C) A rightward shift in political landscapes, with conservative and right-wing parties gaining prominence.
- D) A complete rejection of democratic processes in favor of monarchies.

2. In late 2025, which country saw voters deliver a decisive victory to far-right candidate Jose Antonio Kast, marking a significant shift to the right since the end of its military dictatorship?

- A) Argentina
- B) Brazil
- C) Chile
- D) Colombia

3. What is a commonly cited reason for the recent rightward political shift in Latin America, as voters express frustration with existing conditions?

- A) Increased confidence in international aid organizations.
- B) Widespread voter frustration over persistent crime, economic instability, and corruption.
- C) A renewed surge in support for socialist ideologies.
- D) A global trend of governments becoming more centralized and less responsive.

4. Which of the following countries has recently restored diplomatic relations with Israel, following a period of severance?

- A) Costa Rica
- B) Bolivia
- C) Venezuela
- D) Argentina

5. What key agreement did Costa Rica sign with Israel, inaugurating a new era in their bilateral relations?

- A) A defense pact
- B) A cultural exchange program
- C) A Free Trade Agreement
- D) An educational scholarship initiative

6. Which factor is identified as increasingly influencing the shift to the right in Latin America, particularly among younger demographics?

- A) A decline in social media usage.
- B) A growing preference for traditional political parties.
- C) The influence of young voters and social media.
- D) A decrease in economic globalization.

7. In late 2025, which country's presidential elections were closely contested and followed by weeks of delays due to technical failures and security concerns, ultimately resulting in a conservative candidate's victory?

- A) Ecuador
- B) Honduras
- C) Bolivia
- D) Panama

8. What overarching theme have right-wing and far-right leaders in Latin America largely campaigned on?

- A) Expanding social welfare programs and reducing defense spending.
- B) Reviving distressed economies and strengthening security.
- C) Promoting radical environmental regulations.
- D) Increasing international aid and foreign investment.

9. Which Caribbean nation's nationals might face increased scrutiny or potential deportation following policy changes in the United States starting in 2025?

- A) Cuba
- B) Trinidad and Tobago
- C) Jamaica
- D) Barbados

10. What initiative has seen four Caribbean nations--Barbados, Belize, Dominica, and St. Vincent & the Grenadines--open their borders to each other's citizens, bypassing previous work permit requirements?

- A) A new regional currency union.
- B) An expansion of Caribbean free movement, achieving what CARICOM struggled with for decades.
- C) A joint space exploration program.
- D) A unified military defense alliance.