

South Korea's Vibrant Festival Scene: From Cherry Blossoms to Mud Baths

Festivals · Practice Test · 8 Questions

1. Which South Korean festival is famous for its participants playing in and with mud?

- A) Jinhae Gunhangje Festival
- B) Boryeong Mud Festival
- C) Jinju Namgang Yudeung Festival
- D) Andong International Mask Dance Festival

2. What is a major spring festival in South Korea known for its stunning cherry blossom displays?

- A) Busan Sea Festival
- B) Gangneung Coffee Festival
- C) Jinhae Gunhangje Festival
- D) Daegu Chimac Festival

3. The Seoul Spring Festa is a large-scale event celebrating which season and what aspects of Korean culture?

- A) Autumn; traditional crafts
- B) Winter; ice sculptures
- C) Summer; beach activities
- D) Spring; K-content and K-culture

4. Which festival, held in Jinju, features thousands of lanterns floating along a river?

- A) Andong International Mask Dance Festival
- B) Boryeong Mud Festival
- C) Suwon Hwaseong Cultural Festival
- D) Jinju Namgang Yudeung Festival

5. The Daegu Chimac Festival celebrates Korea's popular pairing of which two items?

- A) Kimchi and Soju
- B) Fried Chicken and Beer
- C) Rice Cakes and Makgeolli
- D) Bibimbap and Tea

6. The Andong International Mask Dance Festival showcases traditional performances and is recognized by which international organization?

- A) World Health Organization (WHO)
- B) International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN)
- C) United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO)
- D) International Labour Organization (ILO)

7. Which festival, celebrated at Daecheon Beach, is known for its fun, muddy activities and therapeutic mud?

- A) Busan Sea Festival
- B) Boryeong Mud Festival
- C) Yeouido Spring Flower Festival
- D) Seoul Spring Festa

8. The Jinju Namgang Yudeung Festival is noted for its lanterns. What is the primary theme often associated with these lanterns?

- A) Celebration of harvest
- B) Wishes and hopes for the future
- C) Commemoration of historical battles
- D) Welcome to spring