

Europe's April-May 2026 Political Landscape: Hungary's Election Upset, EU S

European Politics · Practice Test · 6 Questions

1. Which party achieved a landslide victory in Hungary's parliamentary election on April 12, 2026, challenging Viktor Orbán's Fidesz party?

- A) Democratic Coalition (DK)
- B) Jobbik
- C) Momentum Movement
- D) Tisza Party

2. What significant action did the European Union take on April 23, 2026, regarding Russia and Belarus?

- A) Lifted all existing sanctions
- B) Adopted its 20th package of sanctions
- C) Initiated new trade agreements
- D) Withdrew all diplomatic staff

3. As of May 2, 2026, Giorgia Meloni's government achieved what milestone in Italian republican history?

- A) Became the longest-serving government
- B) Became the second longest-serving government
- C) Passed its first major constitutional reform
- D) Hosted the G7 summit for the first time

4. Which far-right party topped national opinion polls in Germany for the first time around April 26, 2026, amid Chancellor Friedrich Merz's first year in office?

- A) The Left (Die Linke)
- B) Free Democratic Party (FDP)
- C) Alternative for Germany (AfD)
- D) Social Democratic Party (SPD)

5. In April 2026, Spanish Prime Minister Pedro Sánchez hosted summits aimed at building alliances and countering the policies of which global leader?

- A) Emmanuel Macron
- B) Joe Biden
- C) Donald Trump
- D) Xi Jinping

6. Which prominent French radical left leader announced his candidacy for the 2027 presidential election on May 4, 2026?

- A) Marine Le Pen
- B) Éric Zemmour
- C) Jean-Luc Mélenchon
- D) François Bayrou