

UK's Evolving Cultural Tapestry: Regional Festivals, Foodie Delights, and Arts

Festivals · Practice Test · 17 Questions

---

1. Which of the following UK regional food festivals, known for celebrating local produce and unique culinary traditions, is set to take place on Porthminster Beach in Cornwall?

- A) Taste of East Anglia
- B) St Ives Food and Drink Festival
- C) Broadstairs Food Festival
- D) Malton Food Lovers Festival

2. The Jorvik Viking Festival, celebrating York's Viking heritage, typically occurs in which month, drawing visitors with its historical reenactments and workshops?

- A) April
- B) July
- C) February
- D) October

3. In 2025, Bradford is designated as the UK City of Culture. Which renowned dancer-choreographer is slated to present a new project titled 'Memories of the Future' as part of the city's cultural programming?

- A) Akram Khan
- B) Martha Graham
- C) Pina Bausch
- D) Wayne McGregor

4. The Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod in Wales is set to feature a performance by Roger Daltrey, the frontman of which iconic British rock band?

- A) The Rolling Stones
- B) Led Zeppelin
- C) The Who
- D) Pink Floyd

5. Which of these UK music festivals, held annually in the Brecon Beacons, is particularly noted for its strong focus on sustainability and community engagement, alongside its diverse music and arts programming?

- A) Glastonbury Festival
- B) Green Man Festival
- C) Latitude Festival
- D) Isle of Wight Festival

6. Taste of London, a major culinary celebration, marks its 21st anniversary in 2025. In which London park does this festival typically take place?

- A) Hyde Park
- B) Regent's Park
- C) Richmond Park
- D) Hampstead Heath

7. The Birmingham Mela, described as Britain's biggest South Asian festival, is scheduled to return in July 2025. In which park will it be held?

- A) Victoria Park, Smethwick
- B) Wembley Park, London
- C) Heaton Park, Manchester
- D) Kelvingrove Park, Glasgow

8. Which of the following festivals, celebrated for its contemporary and traditional Celtic music and dance, takes place in late July and is described as family-friendly?

- A) Highland Games
- B) SpeyFest
- C) Belladrum Tartan Heart Festival
- D) Celtic Connections

9. The UK's first city-wide celebration of its 'living heritage' is underway, inviting communities to submit treasured traditions. Which of these is NOT a category for submission to the UK inventory of living heritage?

- A) Oral expressions
- B) Performing Arts
- C) Culinary Practices
- D) Digital Media

10. The 'Smoke & Fire Festival' in 2025 is highlighted as the biggest celebration of smoked and grilled food in the country. In which Berkshire location does it take place?

- A) Windsor Great Park
- B) Windsor Enclosure, Ascot Racecourse
- C) Cliveden Estate
- D) Black Park Country Park

11. Which of the following music festivals, held in Suffolk's Henham Park, is known for blending live music with comedy, theatre, literature, and wellness, offering a multi-disciplinary arts experience?

- A) Latitude Festival
- B) All Points East
- C) Reading Festival
- D) Wireless Festival

12. The 'Taste of Scilly' festival celebrates the unique culinary scene of the Scilly Isles. What type of local produce is particularly highlighted at this event?

- A) Truffles and wild mushrooms
- B) Artisanal cheeses and charcuterie
- C) Local seafood and produce
- D) Heritage apples and ciders

13. The 'La Linea' festival in London is a prominent Latin music festival. For 2026, it is noted for having a lineup that is 90% female. Which acclaimed Mexican singer and songwriter, a Latin Grammy winner for Best Newcomer in 2022, is scheduled to perform?

- A) Carla Morrison
- B) Natalia Lafourcade
- C) Silvana Estrada
- D) Mon Laferte

14. The 'Waterworks' festival in London is expanding to two days in 2026, with one day dedicated to house, techno, and electro, and the other to 'sound system culture.' In which London park is this festival held?

- A) Victoria Park
- B) Peckham Rye Park
- C) Gunnersbury Park
- D) Brockwell Park

15. The 'Highland Games' are a series of traditional events held across Scotland from May to September, celebrating Scottish communities and heritage. Which of these activities is a characteristic event at the Highland Games?

- A) Bagpipe music performances
- B) Caber tossing
- C) Highland dancing
- D) All of the above

16. Which of these UK food festivals, held in Yorkshire, is known for showcasing the region's finest produce with stalls, street food, celebrity chefs, and a 'giant street party' atmosphere?

- A) Harrogate Food & Drink Festival
- B) North Leeds Food Festival
- C) Malton Food Lovers Festival
- D) York Food & Drink Festival

17. The Edinburgh Fringe Festival is a renowned international performance arts festival. While it features a massive scale and diverse street events, which of these is NOT typically a core component of its artistic offerings?

- A) Theatre
- B) Comedy
- C) Opera
- D) Dance