

UK Political Turmoil: Labour's Local Election Meltdown, Reform's Rise, and St

UK Politics · Practice Test · 10 Questions

1. In the recent UK local elections, which party made the most significant gains, leading to calls for Prime Minister Keir Starmer's resignation?

- A) Conservative Party
- B) Green Party
- C) Reform UK
- D) Liberal Democrats

2. Following the recent local election results, which of the following has happened to Prime Minister Keir Starmer's Labour Party?

- A) They achieved significant gains in all regions.
- B) They lost over half of their seats in England and control in Wales.
- C) They formed a coalition government with the Conservatives.
- D) Their support remained stable with no major losses.

3. What has been a notable outcome for the Labour Party in Wales following the recent local elections?

- A) They retained control for the first time in 27 years.
- B) They were ousted from power after 27 years.
- C) They formed a coalition with the SNP.
- D) They won a majority of seats across Wales.

4. Which populist party, led by Nigel Farage, has seen substantial gains in recent UK local elections, particularly in working-class areas?

- A) The Green Party
- B) Reform UK
- C) The Liberal Democrats
- D) The Scottish National Party

5. What significant appointment has Prime Minister Keir Starmer made recently to advise on global finance and cooperation?

- A) Angela Rayner
- B) Gordon Brown
- C) Rishi Sunak
- D) Kemi Badenoch

6. The recent local elections have been described as a 'historic shift' by which political figure?

- A) Keir Starmer
- B) Nigel Farage
- C) Kemi Badenoch
- D) The King

7. Which other party, besides Reform UK, has been noted for making significant gains in urban centers and university towns during the recent local elections?

- A) The Conservative Party
- B) The Liberal Democrats
- C) The Green Party
- D) The Scottish National Party

8. Despite the poor election results, what has been Prime Minister Keir Starmer's stance on calls for his resignation?

- A) He has agreed to set a timetable for his departure.
- B) He has refused to resign and pledged to continue.
- C) He has resigned with immediate effect.
- D) He has called for a new party leadership election.

9. The recent local election results have been seen by some as a 'blunt verdict' from voters on whose leadership?

- A) Nigel Farage
- B) Kemi Badenoch
- C) Keir Starmer
- D) Boris Johnson

10. In Scotland, which party has been declared the largest party following recent elections, though without a majority?

- A) Labour Party
- B) Reform UK
- C) Scottish National Party (SNP)
- D) Conservative Party