

Middle East Political Turmoil: Iran-US Truce Fragile, Lebanon Crisis Deepens,

Middle East Politics · Practice Test · 10 Questions

---

1. As of early May 2026, what is the primary status of the ceasefire between the United States and Iran, according to recent reports?

- A) The ceasefire is robust and has led to immediate de-escalation of all regional conflicts.
- B) The ceasefire is on 'life support' and described as 'unbelievably weak' by President Trump, with ongoing diplomatic challenges.
- C) A permanent peace treaty has been signed, ending all hostilities.
- D) The ceasefire has been formally broken by both sides, leading to renewed open warfare.

2. What is the current state of Lebanon's political and economic situation, characterized by ongoing crises?

- A) Lebanon has achieved significant economic recovery and elected a stable, unified government.
- B) The country is experiencing a leadership vacuum with a caretaker government, an economic collapse, and a currency that has lost 97% of its value since 2019.
- C) Hezbollah has successfully brokered a comprehensive peace deal, resolving all internal political disputes.
- D) International aid has fully stabilized Lebanon's economy, leading to widespread prosperity.

3. Which of the following was a significant development in the Syrian conflict during January 2026?

- A) The Syrian government launched an offensive against the Kurdish-led Syrian Democratic Forces (SDF) in northeastern Syria.
- B) A lasting peace agreement was signed between the Syrian government and all opposition factions.
- C) The SDF successfully ousted the Syrian government from Damascus.
- D) International forces intervened and established a no-fly zone over all of Syria.

4. Which country has been mediating efforts to reach a potential ceasefire and peace agreement between the United States and Iran?

- A) Saudi Arabia
- B) Qatar
- C) Pakistan
- D) United Arab Emirates

5. What is a key concern regarding the ongoing conflict between Israel and Hamas, as highlighted by Amnesty International?

- A) Hamas has been accused of violating international humanitarian law by embedding fighters among civilians.
- B) Israel has been accused of committing genocide against Palestinians in the Gaza Strip.
- C) Both sides have strictly adhered to international humanitarian law, with no reported violations.
- D) The conflict has been contained entirely within the Gaza Strip with no spillover effects.

6. What significant defense pact was concluded between Saudi Arabia and Pakistan in January 2026, as reported in early May 2026?

- A) A mutual defense pact formalizing and elevating their decades-old defense and security ties.
- B) A non-aggression treaty focused solely on economic cooperation.
- C) A military alliance aimed at directly confronting Iran militarily.
- D) A joint space exploration agreement.

7. According to recent reports, what is the primary reason cited by the UN for the continued detention of its staff in Yemen by Houthi forces?

- A) The staff members were found to be engaging in espionage.
- B) The detentions are unjustified and severely impacting humanitarian operations.
- C) The staff members violated Yemeni sovereignty laws.
- D) The detentions are part of a prisoner exchange negotiation.

8. What recent development has occurred regarding the UAE's relationship with the United States in the context of regional security?

- A) The UAE has severed all diplomatic ties with the United States.
- B) The UAE has discussed the repercussions of Iranian attacks and explored ways to achieve sustainable regional peace and security with the US.
- C) The UAE has announced its withdrawal from all US-led security alliances.
- D) The UAE has signed a military non-aggression pact with Iran.

9. In January 2026, what significant event occurred in northeastern Syria concerning the Syrian government and the SDF?

- A) The Syrian government and the SDF signed a comprehensive peace treaty and integrated their forces.
- B) The SDF launched a successful offensive, capturing Damascus.
- C) The Syrian government launched an offensive against the SDF, which was later followed by a ceasefire and integration agreement.
- D) International forces intervened and established a buffer zone between the Syrian government and the SDF.

10. What is Saudi Arabia's stated position and actions regarding the Strait of Hormuz amidst the current regional tensions?

- A) Saudi Arabia supports Iran's closure of the Strait of Hormuz to international shipping.
- B) Saudi Arabia has called for de-escalation, restraint, and the full restoration of free and safe maritime traffic through the Strait of Hormuz.
- C) Saudi Arabia has closed its own ports to international shipping in solidarity with Iran.
- D) Saudi Arabia is actively participating in military operations to control the Strait of Hormuz.