

North America's Health Focus: June 2026 Observances, Conferences, and Pul

Global Health · Answer Key · 12 Questions

1. Which month is designated as Men's Health Month in the United States and Canada, focusing on men's unique health challenges and encouraging proactive health measures?

- A) April
- B) May
- C) June
- D) July

2. The e-Health Conference and Tradeshow, a significant event for Canadian digital health professionals, is scheduled to take place in Halifax in June 2026. What are the specific dates for this conference?

- A) June 1-3
- B) June 7-9
- C) June 14-16
- D) June 21-23

3. In June 2026, the Pan American Health Organization (PAHO) is scheduled to host a regional training workshop in Panama. What is the primary focus of this workshop?

- A) Hantavirus and arenavirus preparedness and response
- B) Development of new vaccine technologies
- C) Strengthening mental health services
- D) Combating antimicrobial resistance

4. The 'Seven Days in June: Health is Primary' campaign is an initiative focused on increasing public awareness about healthcare issues. Which of the following is a stated goal of this campaign?

- A) To promote experimental medical treatments
- B) To advocate for affordable and accessible healthcare
- C) To encourage participation in clinical trials
- D) To lobby for increased pharmaceutical research funding

5. June 2026 is recognized as Alzheimer's and Brain Awareness Month. What is the main objective of this observance?

- A) To fundraise for Alzheimer's research
- B) To increase understanding of Alzheimer's disease and overall brain health
- C) To promote early diagnosis through genetic testing
- D) To provide support services for dementia patients

6. The International Conference on Healthcare & Social Work is scheduled for June 19-20, 2026, in Toronto. What is the theme for this conference?

- A) "Digital Health Innovations"
- B) "Health in a Social Perspective: Innovations, Integration, and Global Solutions"
- C) "Advancing Pharmaceutical Research"
- D) "Global Strategies for Pandemic Preparedness"

7. In June 2026, Health Canada identified several key priorities. Which of the following is among these priorities?

- A) Reducing the cost of imported medical devices
- B) Supporting access to oral health care services for Canadians
- C) Mandating health insurance for all citizens
- D) Phasing out traditional medicine practices

8. World Drug Day, also known as the International Day against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking, is observed annually in June. What is the specific date for this observance?

- A) June 15
- B) June 19
- C) June 26
- D) June 27

9. The Public Health Agency of Canada (PHAC) has outlined key priorities for 2026-27. Which of these is a stated priority?

- A) Decreasing vaccination rates in Canada
- B) Reducing the spread of antimicrobial resistance (AMR)
- C) Limiting public health research funding
- D) Focusing solely on infectious disease outbreaks

10. In June 2026, pharmacists in Ontario will be able to administer additional publicly funded vaccines. Which of the following diseases is among those targeted by these new vaccine administration services?

- A) Meningitis
- B) Tetanus
- C) Hepatitis B
- D) Influenza

11. The National Center for PTSD leads the observance of PTSD Awareness Month in June. What is a key goal of this observance?

A) To eliminate PTSD entirely

B) To increase understanding of PTSD and promote effective treatment

C) To discourage individuals from seeking mental health support

D) To focus only on military veterans with PTSD

12. The Pan American Health Organization (PAHO) has launched a Strategic Plan for 2026-2031. What is the overarching theme of this plan?

A) "Eradicating all infectious diseases"

B) "Together toward a Healthier Americas for All"

C) "Technological advancements in healthcare"

D) "Reducing healthcare costs through privatization"