

June 2026 Southeast Asia Environmental Events: Climate Summits, Conserva

Environment · Practice Test · 16 Questions

1. Which city will host the Seventh Global Conference on Climate and SDG Synergies on June 29-30, 2026, focusing on integrated responses to climate change, biodiversity loss, and pollution in the Asia-Pacific region?

- A) Jakarta, Indonesia
- B) Bangkok, Thailand
- C) Singapore
- D) Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

2. The Global Sustainable Development Congress 2026 is set to take place in which Southeast Asian capital city from June 22-25, 2026?

- A) Hanoi, Vietnam
- B) Manila, Philippines
- C) Jakarta, Indonesia
- D) Bangkok, Thailand

3. In June 2026, Singapore will host a dialogue titled 'AI and sustainability in Asia-Pacific: accelerator, risk multiplier, or both?'. What is the exact date for this event?

- A) June 1st
- B) June 3rd
- C) June 5th
- D) June 10th

4. The ASEAN Declaration on the Right to a Safe, Clean, Healthy and Sustainable Environment was adopted in October 2025. Which of the following is a key procedural right mentioned in this declaration?

- A) The right to exploit natural resources without restriction.
- B) The right to unrestricted industrial development.
- C) Public participation in environmental decision-making.
- D) Protection from all forms of environmental regulation.

5. What is the primary objective of the 'Forests for Life' project, approved by the Thai Cabinet in February 2026?

- A) To promote commercial logging in protected areas.
- B) To strengthen the conservation of intact tropical forest landscapes.
- C) To facilitate urban expansion into forest reserves.
- D) To establish golf courses in natural habitats.

6. The Nagao Wetland Fund provides grants for wetland conservation projects in Asia and Oceania. What is the maximum grant amount a project can receive per country per year?

- A) USD 10,000
- B) USD 30,000
- C) USD 50,000
- D) USD 100,000

7. Which initiative, launched in February 2026, aims to strengthen the conservation of Thailand's intact tropical forest landscapes through integrated management and community participation?

- A) Green Lung Initiative
- B) Forests for Life Project
- C) Biodiversity Corridors Program
- D) Reforestation Acceleration Plan

8. World Environment Day is celebrated annually on June 5th. In 2026, which country is mentioned as the host for the global commemoration?

- A) Philippines
- B) Indonesia
- C) Azerbaijan
- D) Thailand

9. The ASEAN Climate Week 2026, held in Manila, focused on shifting from 'ambition' to 'delivery'. What was a key outcome highlighted regarding inter-country cooperation?

- A) A new trade agreement between ASEAN and China.
- B) An implementation agreement on Article 6 of the Paris Agreement between the Philippines and Singapore.
- C) A joint space exploration program.
- D) A unified currency for all ASEAN nations.

10. A USD 42 million program was launched in June 2025 to protect primary forests in Southeast Asia and the Pacific. Which organization is leading this initiative along with the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO)?

- A) The World Wildlife Fund (WWF)
- B) The International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN)
- C) Greenpeace
- D) The Nature Conservancy

11. The 'Sustaining Our Oceans' initiative, showcased in Jakarta on June 15, 2026, focuses on which type of living learning spaces?

- A) Urban parks and botanical gardens
- B) Biosphere reserves and coastal communities
- C) Mountain ranges and national parks
- D) Deserts and arid regions

12. Thailand is expediting its Climate Change Act. What is a primary aim of this legislation?

- A) To increase reliance on fossil fuels.
- B) To position Thailand as a regional leader in the low-carbon economy and strengthen resilience to climate disasters.
- C) To ban all forms of renewable energy.
- D) To promote international tourism at the expense of environmental protection.

13. The ASEAN-EU Sustainability Summit 2026, held in Cebu, highlighted the deepening cooperation between regions. What were the central pillars of this regional stability and development?

- A) Increased military spending and defense pacts.
- B) Sustainability, industrial resilience, and long-term partnership.
- C) Expansion of traditional industries and resource extraction.
- D) Strict border controls and protectionist trade policies.

14. Which environmental event, celebrated on April 22nd, saw mobilization across Asia with a focus on public campaigns and community action, linking everyday behavior to climate goals?

- A) World Water Day
- B) Earth Day
- C) International Day of Forests
- D) World Environment Day

15. The 'Closing the Loop: How the EU's Evolving EPR Policies Create New Opportunities for Asia-' webinar series is scheduled for June 9, 2026. EPR stands for:

- A) Environmental Protection Regulation
- B) Extended Producer Responsibility
- C) Ecological Resource Policy
- D) Energy Production Reform

16. The Prince Albert II of Monaco Foundation launched new partnerships in March 2026 to support forest conservation in which three major regions?

- A) North America, Europe, and Australia
- B) South America, Africa, and Asia
- C) Amazon, Southeast Asia, and the Congo Basin
- D) Central Asia, the Middle East, and the Arctic