

G7 Nations Tackle Critical Minerals, AI Security, and Environmental Pledges in

G7 Nations · Practice Test · 8 Questions

1. As part of its 2026 environmental agenda, the G7 launched the 'Nature & People Finance Alliance' to help finance what?

- A) Renewable energy projects
- B) Nature protection, conservation, and restoration
- C) Sustainable agriculture
- D) Ocean cleanup initiatives

2. What critical mineral supply chain issue are G7 nations aiming to reduce dependence on, particularly from China?

- A) Lithium
- B) Cobalt
- C) Rare earths and critical minerals
- D) Uranium

3. In March 2026, G7 Foreign Ministers met in France and discussed the situation in Iran and the region. What did they reiterate the absolute necessity to permanently restore regarding maritime routes?

- A) Safe and toll-free passage in the Suez Canal
- B) Safe and toll-free freedom of navigation in the Strait of Hormuz
- C) Unrestricted access to the Persian Gulf
- D) Coordinated shipping lanes in the Indian Ocean

4. The G7 Digital Working Group, meeting in Paris in April 2026, focused on several core priority areas. Which of the following was NOT among them?

- A) Artificial intelligence security
- B) Integration of AI into the economy
- C) Strengthening the resilience of the digital sector
- D) Regulation of social media content

5. France holds the G7 Presidency in 2026. The G7 Summit is scheduled to take place in which French town?

- A) Paris
- B) Nice
- C) Lyon
- D) Évian

6. In March 2026, G7 Leaders agreed to establish coordination between member countries and Gulf economies regarding the economic consequences of which ongoing conflict?

- A) The war in Ukraine
- B) The conflict in the Middle East
- C) The war in Sudan
- D) The conflict in the South China Sea

7. G7 Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors met in Paris in May 2026. What did they aim for in their respective nations through policies outlined in their communiqué?

- A) Increased trade protectionism
- B) Promoting balanced growth and macroeconomic stability
- C) Aggressive interest rate hikes
- D) Reduced government spending on infrastructure

8. What did the G7 Cybersecurity Working Group, with guidance from CISA, release in May 2026 to help improve transparency in AI systems and supply chains?

- A) A framework for AI ethics
- B) A joint statement on AI regulation
- C) Guidance for a Software Bill of Materials for AI
- D) A list of approved AI developers