

BRICS Nations Unite for Sports and Economic Growth: New Agreements Spur

Sports Economics · Practice Test · 10 Questions

1. What is a key objective of the recent Memorandum of Understanding on Cooperation in Physical Culture and Sports signed by BRICS nations?

- A) To reduce global carbon emissions
- B) To exclusively promote individual athletic achievements
- C) To reduce inequalities and foster social inclusion
- D) To establish a unified BRICS currency

2. Which Brazilian program is highlighted as an example of financial aid for athletes, aimed at reducing drop-out rates and enhancing competitiveness?

- A) Programa Bolsa Família
- B) Bolsa Atleta
- C) Programa Minha Casa Minha Vida
- D) Programa Mais Médicos

3. According to experts, what is a significant economic benefit of sporting events organized by BRICS countries, beyond direct participation?

- A) A decrease in tourism revenue
- B) A negative impact on infrastructure development
- C) A multiplier effect stimulating regional economies
- D) Increased national debt due to event costs

4. How are BRICS nations aiming to use sports in their broader policy frameworks, according to recent agreements?

- A) To solely focus on entertainment value
- B) To integrate sports into public policy for social and economic development
- C) To restrict participation to elite athletes only
- D) To reduce funding for sports programs

5. What potential role do Middle Eastern countries play in the future of BRICS sports, according to expert assessments?

- A) Becoming centers for athletic training facilities
- B) Serving as financial hubs for regular tournaments
- C) Focusing solely on sports diplomacy and cultural exchange
- D) Developing new sports equipment manufacturing

6. What historical role did sports play in post-apartheid South Africa, as mentioned in discussions about BRICS sports cooperation?

- A) To deepen racial segregation
- B) To forge a unified national identity and promote social cohesion
- C) To discourage cultural exchange
- D) To establish a purely entertainment-focused industry

7. What is a major concern identified in the historical hosting of sports mega-events by BRICS nations, regarding their economic impact?

- A) Underestimated costs and exaggerated benefits
- B) Excessive infrastructure development with no alternatives
- C) Diversion of funds from essential services like health and education
- D) Lack of international media attention

8. What is the primary purpose of the BRICS+ International Youth Forum, as mentioned in recent reports?

- A) To organize elite professional sports leagues
- B) To facilitate cultural exchange and prepare young leaders in international sports diplomacy
- C) To solely focus on academic research about sports
- D) To provide a platform for political rallies

9. Which of the following is NOT a stated benefit of sports cooperation among BRICS nations?

- A) Promoting peace and harmony
- B) Driving economic prosperity and job creation
- C) Exacerbating international rivalries
- D) Fostering mutual understanding and friendship

10. The BRICS Marathon League was established with the aim of strengthening international cooperation through which aspect?

- A) Individual athlete endorsements
- B) The development of sports betting platforms
- C) Sports and promoting cultural exchange
- D) The creation of new sporting equipment