

Oceania's 2026 Holiday Boom: Economic Shifts, Tourism Trends & Key Dates

Holidays & Economy · Answer Key · 16 Questions

---

1. In 2026, which of these Pacific Island nations is projected to see a significant economic boost from international tourism, as indicated by an increase in visitor arrivals and expenditure, despite global travel disruptions?

A) Fiji

B) Samoa

C) Vanuatu

D) Kiribati

2. Considering the economic impact of public holidays, which Australian state typically observes a 'Labour Day' in early March, influencing retail and service sector activity during that period?

A) Western Australia

B) Victoria

C) Queensland

D) South Australia

3. In Papua New Guinea, which of the following public holidays in 2026 is specifically designated to commemorate the nation's independence?

A) National Remembrance Day

B) King's Birthday

C) Independence Day

D) National Day of Repentance

4. New Zealand's tourism sector, a significant contributor to its GDP, is experiencing growth. Which of the following months in 2026 shows a potential for extended holiday travel by combining public holidays with annual leave, as suggested by travel trend analyses?

A) January

B) April

C) July

D) December

5. Fiji observes 'Girmit Day' in May 2026. What historical event does this public holiday commemorate?

A) Arrival of Indian indentured laborers

B) Proclamation of Republic

C) Founding of the first settlement

D) Signing of the Treaty of Waitangi

6. The economic impact of public holidays on businesses is a key consideration. In the Australian retail sector for 2026, what is the general penalty rate for casual employees working on a public holiday?

- A) 200% of their minimum hourly rate
- B) 225% of their minimum hourly rate
- C) 250% of their minimum hourly rate
- D) 300% of their minimum hourly rate

7. Vanuatu celebrates 'Independence Day' in July 2026. Which date is observed for this significant national holiday?

- A) July 24
- B) July 25
- C) July 30
- D) August 1

8. Tourism remains a vital export earner for New Zealand. As of March 2025, what percentage of New Zealand's GDP did tourism contribute, highlighting its economic significance?

- A) Approximately 5.5%
- B) Approximately 7.7%
- C) Approximately 10.2%
- D) Approximately 12.5%

9. In Samoa, 'Independence Day' in 2026 marks a significant event. Which year did Samoa gain its independence, leading to this annual public holiday?

- A) 1958
- B) 1962
- C) 1970
- D) 1980

10. The economic performance of countries like Papua New Guinea is influenced by various factors, including their trade balance. In 2026, what was the approximate Balance of Trade for Papua New Guinea, indicating its economic health?

- A) A deficit of 11,759.60 PGK Million
- B) A surplus of 11,759.60 PGK Million
- C) A deficit of 8,758.90 PGK Million
- D) A surplus of 8,758.90 PGK Million

11. Fiji's public holidays reflect its diverse cultural and religious landscape. Which of the following holidays in 2026 is observed by the Muslim community in Fiji?

- A) Diwali
- B) Girmit Day
- C) Prophet Mohammed's Birthday
- D) Fiji Day

12. New Zealand's tourism sector is a major employer. Approximately what fraction of New Zealanders are employed in tourism and hospitality, underscoring the sector's economic importance?

- A) One in five
- B) One in seven
- C) One in nine
- D) One in twelve

13. The Australian 'Australia Day' public holiday in 2026 falls on a Monday. What is a key right for casual workers regarding working on this public holiday?

- A) They must work and receive overtime pay.
- B) They have the right to refuse shifts.
- C) They are automatically entitled to the day off with pay.
- D) They can be rostered on without penalty rates.

14. In Samoa, new labor laws in 2026 permit businesses to remain open on public holidays, a change influenced by what sector's growth?

- A) Agriculture
- B) Manufacturing
- C) Tourism
- D) Mining

15. Papua New Guinea's economic indicators include its unemployment rate. What was the reported unemployment rate for Papua New Guinea in 2026, affecting its economic outlook?

- A) Approximately 1.5%
- B) Approximately 2.6%
- C) Approximately 4.8%
- D) Approximately 6.1%

16. Fiji Day in 2026 falls on a Saturday. When did Fiji become an independent sovereign state, commemorated by this holiday?

A) October 10, 1960

B) October 10, 1970

C) October 10, 1980

D) October 10, 1990