

Oceania's Health Horizon: June 2026's Key Health Events & Initiatives

Global Health · Answer Key · 10 Questions

1. In June 2026, which country in Oceania is launching a national campaign to help women better understand menopause and perimenopause symptoms?

- A) New Zealand
- B) Fiji
- C) Australia
- D) Papua New Guinea

2. What month-long health awareness campaign takes place throughout June 2026 in Australia, focusing on prevention and first aid for burns?

- A) Bowel Cancer Awareness Month
- B) National Safety Month
- C) National Burns Awareness Month
- D) Men's Health Month

3. Which week in June 2026 is dedicated to promoting men's health and encouraging them to prioritize their well-being across Oceania?

- A) World Health Week
- B) Men's Health Week
- C) Pacific Health Week
- D) Wellbeing Week

4. In June 2026, which Pacific nation is set to establish a new medical school at its university to address a critical shortage of healthcare workers?

- A) Fiji
- B) Samoa
- C) Vanuatu
- D) Papua New Guinea

5. World Blood Donor Day is observed globally on June 14th. In June 2026, which of these countries is actively promoting this event as part of National Blood Donor Week?

- A) Solomon Islands
- B) Australia
- C) Vanuatu
- D) Samoa

6. In June 2026, the OPHA Conference, focusing on strengthening Pacific health, is scheduled to take place in which Australian city?

- A) Sydney
- B) Melbourne
- C) Brisbane
- D) Perth

7. What significant health observance takes place on June 5th, 2026, encouraging crucial conversations around climate action and conservation in New Zealand and globally?

- A) World Environment Day
- B) World Health Day
- C) World Oceans Day
- D) World Allergy Day

8. Which of the following health initiatives is planned for Vanuatu with HIV screening centers set to launch in 2026, as part of expanded cancer screening programs?

- A) Malaria Elimination Program
- B) HIV Screening Center Launch
- C) TB Catch-up Screening
- D) Ciguatera Fish Poisoning Alert

9. In June 2026, New Zealand will observe World Oceans Day. What is the primary focus of this day in the context of New Zealand?

- A) Promoting marine conservation
- B) Encouraging water sports
- C) Mapping ocean floor
- D) Studying marine biology

10. Throughout June 2026, Alzheimer's and Brain Awareness Month is being observed. Which countries in Oceania are particularly highlighting this awareness?

- A) Only Fiji
- B) Australia and New Zealand
- C) Only Samoa
- D) Papua New Guinea and Solomon Islands