

EU Digital Landscape: AI Regulations, Social Media Safeguards, and Streaming

EU Digital Culture · Practice Test · 11 Questions

1. Which major EU legislation aims to regulate Artificial Intelligence (AI) systems based on their risk level?

- A) Digital Services Act (DSA)
- B) General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
- C) AI Act
- D) Digital Markets Act (DMA)

2. What is the European Union proposing to protect children from potentially harmful social media platform designs?

- A) Stricter age verification requirements
- B) Introducing a universal social media ban for users under 16
- C) New regulations targeting addictive and manipulative design features
- D) Mandatory content moderation for all user-generated posts

3. As of May 2026, what is a key focus for website operators regarding data protection in the EU, in line with GDPR?

- A) Increasing the use of third-party cookies
- B) Reducing transparency about AI tool data utilization
- C) Stricter enforcement of cookie and consent rules
- D) Limiting access to data protection declarations

4. Which EU initiative is being developed to ensure that AI systems used in Europe respect citizens' rights and safety?

- A) European Media Freedom Act
- B) AI Act
- C) Digital Fairness Act
- D) Data Protection Act

5. What is a significant trend in the European streaming market as of early 2026, making legal options more attractive?

- A) A sharp increase in piracy rates
- B) The introduction of only premium, ad-free services
- C) A decline in illegal streaming content due to more affordable legal options
- D) The discontinuation of most free streaming services

6. The European Union is working on new rules to protect children against addictive designs on social media platforms like TikTok and Meta. What is the proposed name for this initiative?

- A) Digital Services Act (DSA)
- B) Digital Fairness Act
- C) AI Act
- D) Data Protection Regulation (DPR)

7. In May 2026, EU negotiators reached a provisional agreement to simplify rules regarding Artificial Intelligence. This agreement is part of which legislative package?

- A) Digital Markets Act (DMA)
- B) Digital Services Act (DSA)
- C) Omnibus VII
- D) AI Transparency Initiative

8. The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) marked a significant milestone for data protection in the EU. When did it enter into force?

- A) May 24, 2016
- B) April 17, 2026
- C) May 12, 2026
- D) May 05, 2026

9. Which specific type of AI-generated content is the EU AI Act, following the 'AI Omnibus' agreement, introducing a prohibition against, particularly concerning minors?

- A) Deepfakes of politicians
- B) Non-consensual intimate imagery and child sexual abuse material
- C) AI-generated news articles
- D) AI-generated music

10. Which European country has finalized plans to ban social media for children under 15, with the ban set to take effect in January 2027?

- A) France
- B) Germany
- C) Greece
- D) Spain

11. What trend is emerging in the iGaming market in Europe for 2026, as indicated by new data?

- A) A decline in slot game popularity
- B) Increased dominance of a single game provider across all markets
- C) Greater market concentration with fewer regional challengers
- D) Increased fragmentation and competition between suppliers, with Pragmatic Play leading in Europe