

Southeast Asia's Health Headlines: Dengue Resurgence, Digital Mental Wellne

Public Health · Answer Key · 5 Questions

---

1. Which mosquito-borne disease saw a significant increase in cases across Southeast Asian countries like Singapore and Cambodia in 2024, contributing to the world's largest recorded outbreak?

- A) Malaria
- B) Zika Virus
- C) Chikungunya
- D) Dengue Fever

2. In Southeast Asia, what dual challenge does TikTok present regarding youth mental health, according to recent studies?

- A) Increasing therapy accessibility while promoting professional counselors.
- B) Offering educational content and fostering online communities.
- C) Destigmatizing discussions while spreading harmful misinformation.
- D) Connecting peers and providing anonymous support systems.

3. Which social media platform has partnered with organizations like Temasek Foundation to launch initiatives such as the "Trusted Creators Lab" aimed at combating public health misinformation in Southeast Asia?

- A) Facebook
- B) Instagram
- C) TikTok
- D) X (formerly Twitter)

4. During its COVID-19 vaccination drive, which Southeast Asian country controversially prioritized social media influencers alongside healthcare workers to boost public acceptance?

- A) Thailand
- B) Philippines
- C) Vietnam
- D) Indonesia

5. Digital marketing on social media platforms is identified as a significant factor in the increasing exposure and use of which product among youth in Southeast Asia, posing a major public health challenge?

- A) Energy Drinks
- B) Dietary Supplements
- C) E-cigarettes
- D) Fast Food