

Nordic Diplomacy & Defense: Key Summits, Arctic Security, and Transatlantic

Nordic Diplomacy · Practice Test · 10 Questions

---

1. In 2025, the Kingdom of Denmark assumes the Chairship of the Arctic Council from Norway. What are the five overarching priorities for Denmark's Chairship?

- A) Indigenous Peoples and Communities in the Arctic; Sustainable Economic Development and Energy Transition Solutions; Oceans; Arctic Climate Change; Biodiversity
- B) Maritime Security; Renewable Energy; Digitalization; Arctic Governance; Indigenous Rights
- C) Climate Adaptation; Sustainable Fisheries; Arctic Shipping Routes; Geopolitical Stability; Cultural Heritage
- D) Arctic Research; Disaster Preparedness; Non-Proliferation; Transatlantic Cooperation; Arctic Tourism

2. The 77th Session of the Nordic Council is scheduled to take place in Stockholm from October 27-30, 2025, hosted by Sweden. Which significant EU figure is confirmed to attend and address the session?

- A) Ursula von der Leyen, President of the European Commission
- B) Charles Michel, President of the European Council
- C) Josep Borrell, High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy
- D) Kristalina Georgieva, Managing Director of the IMF

3. A revised Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) for NORDEFECO was signed in Rovaniemi on May 6, 2025. What is a key stated goal of this renewed agreement?

- A) To strengthen deterrence and defense in the Nordic region, promote common strategic understanding, and enable coordinated military operations.
- B) To exclusively focus on joint procurement of advanced military hardware.
- C) To establish a unified Nordic military command structure independent of NATO.
- D) To phase out cooperation with NATO and focus solely on EU defense initiatives.

4. The International Baltic Security Summit in Łódź is an annual forum. Which foundation, focused on Nordic issues, is a co-organizer of this summit?

- A) The Nordic Institute Foundation
- B) The Nordic Council of Ministers Secretariat
- C) The Swedish Institute for International Affairs
- D) The Arctic Centre, University of Lapland

5. As of late 2024, the US introduced new tariffs on a range of European products. Which Nordic country's exports to the US are projected to fall by approximately 10% in 2025 due to these measures?

- A) Sweden
- B) Finland
- C) Norway
- D) Iceland

6. The Nordic Council's 76th annual session in Reykjavik (October 28-31, 2024) had a main theme of 'Peace and Security in the Arctic'. Who were among the invited guest speakers?

- A) Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy and Belarusian democratic movement leader Svetlana Tsikhanouskaya
- B) NATO Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg and US Secretary of Defense Lloyd Austin
- C) UN Secretary-General António Guterres and the Prime Minister of Canada
- D) King of Norway Harald V and the President of the European Commission Ursula von der Leyen

7. In May 2025, Nordic energy ministers issued a joint statement focusing on strengthening cooperation. Which country's government has taken a notable initiative in engaging with other Nordic countries on this matter?

- A) Norway
- B) Denmark
- C) Finland
- D) Sweden

8. The 'Nordic Initiative for a Diplomatic Accord in Israel and Palestine' is set to launch in Edinburgh in September 2025. Which former Nordic foreign minister is listed as a participant?

- A) Ann Linde (Sweden)
- B) Pekka Haavisto (Finland)
- C) Jeppe Kofod (Denmark)
- D) Gunnar Bragi Sveinsson (Iceland)

9. Norway's chairship of the Arctic Council (2023-2025) concluded on May 12, 2025, at the 14th ministerial meeting. What was a key milestone achieved during Norway's chairship regarding the Council's work?

- A) Securing agreement to resume scientific work through written procedure and the gradual return of virtual Working Group meetings.
- B) Successfully negotiating a comprehensive Arctic climate change mitigation treaty.
- C) Establishing a permanent Arctic Council headquarters in Tromsø.
- D) Formalizing a joint military defense pact among all Arctic states.

10. The 2025 Session of the Nordic Council, hosted by Sweden, will include a meeting with the President of the European Commission. What is a key agenda item for this meeting?

- A) Nordic supply preparedness, and Nordic and European competitiveness
- B) Harmonization of foreign policy towards Russia
- C) Joint space exploration initiatives
- D) A unified Nordic approach to digital currency regulation