

Asia's Green Shift: From Plastic Bans to Mangrove Restoration - Trending Env

Environment · Practice Test · 10 Questions

1. Which Southeast Asian country is actively reviving traditional marine management systems like 'sasi' to protect its ecosystems?

- A) Vietnam
- B) Philippines
- C) Indonesia
- D) Thailand

2. In Japan, what is the primary goal of the 'Plastic Resource Circulation Promotion Law' enacted in 2022?

- A) To increase the production of single-use plastics.
- B) To ban all forms of plastic recycling.
- C) To reduce the use of single-use plastic products and promote alternatives.
- D) To encourage the export of plastic waste to other countries.

3. Which Asian city has launched a community-based circular ecosystem that uses black soldier fly larvae to process food waste into fertilizer for local farms?

- A) Bangkok, Thailand
- B) Singapore
- C) Tokyo, Japan
- D) Seoul, South Korea

4. South Korea implemented a ban on single-use plastic grocery shopping bags starting in which year?

- A) 2022
- B) 2019
- C) 2015
- D) 2021

5. Vietnam has been actively engaged in restoring which vital coastal ecosystem to combat sea-level rise and coastal erosion?

- A) Coral reefs
- B) Seagrass beds
- C) Mangrove forests
- D) Kelp forests

6. Malaysia is focusing on eco-tourism as a key part of its sustainable development strategy, leveraging its rich biodiversity and what else?

- A) Industrial manufacturing
- B) Technological innovation
- C) Cultural heritage
- D) Financial services

7. India's 'Swachh Bharat Abhiyan' (Clean India Mission) aims to instill a sense of responsibility for what in its citizens?

- A) Space exploration
- B) Correct disposal of waste and checking littering
- C) Digital literacy
- D) Agricultural innovation

8. In Thailand, what type of waste is being targeted for innovative solutions, such as conversion into refuse-derived fuel (RDF)?

- A) Electronic waste
- B) Hazardous waste
- C) Organic waste
- D) General non-hazardous waste

9. Community-based conservation efforts in the Philippines have seen success in areas like marine protected areas, mangrove conservation, and what else?

- A) Volcanic eruption prevention
- B) Wildlife rehabilitation for non-native species
- C) Crocodile conservation
- D) Glacier monitoring

10. Japan's 'Plastic Resource Circulation Strategy' aims to achieve a 25% reduction in single-use plastics by which year?

- A) 2030
- B) 2025
- C) 2035
- D) 2040