

Philippines Navigates Global Digital Diplomacy: ASEAN Ties, Cyber Threats, a

Digital Diplomacy · Practice Test · 10 Questions

1. In recent years, the Philippines has increasingly utilized digital platforms for its foreign policy objectives. Which of the following initiatives best exemplifies the country's focus on enhancing e-governance and citizen access to public services through digital means?

- A) The launch of the "Bagong Pilipinas" campaign to promote nationalistic internet content.
- B) The development and implementation of the eGov Super App and eGovDX interoperability backbone.
- C) A national social media challenge encouraging Filipinos to share positive news about the country.
- D) Increased investment in cybersecurity measures solely for national defense purposes.

2. The Philippines actively participates in regional digital cooperation. In its engagement with ASEAN, what aspect of digitalization has been identified as a key component for strengthening bilateral ties, as highlighted by the Malaysian envoy?

- A) Digital content moderation policies specific to regional media.
- B) The development of a unified ASEAN-wide social media platform for citizens.
- C) Digitalization in public relations, education, business, and banking.
- D) Joint efforts in establishing a regional cryptocurrency standard.

3. The Philippines' cultural diplomacy efforts leverage various channels to promote its heritage abroad. Which of the following is a key strategy employed, particularly in reaching wider audiences and fostering cultural exchange?

- A) Exclusively focusing on traditional physical exhibitions and festivals.
- B) Utilizing digital platforms and online resources.
- C) Limiting cultural promotion to diplomatic missions abroad.
- D) Prioritizing linguistic immersion programs in foreign countries.

4. In the context of international relations and cybersecurity, the Philippines has recently joined a significant global initiative aimed at combating cyber threats. Which initiative did the Philippines join, as mentioned in discussions with the United States?

- A) The International Counter Ransomware Initiative.
- B) The Global Cybercrime Prevention Alliance.
- C) The Digital Economy Security Task Force.
- D) The Secure Internet for All Coalition.

5. Recent analyses of digital diplomacy in Southeast Asia, particularly concerning the South China Sea, have observed differing approaches among ASEAN member states. How has the Philippines' digital diplomacy towards China been characterized in this context?

- A) As generally passive, mirroring China's narratives.
- B) As more assertive, reflecting its geopolitical alignment with the United States.
- C) As neutral, focusing solely on economic cooperation.
- D) As primarily driven by domestic social media trends.

6. The Philippines has made significant strides in its global digital rankings. Which UN index saw the Philippines climb 31 places, reaching 49th position out of 193 countries, reflecting its commitment to leveraging technology for public engagement?

- A) The UN E-Government Development Index (EGDI).
- B) The UN E-Participation Index (EPI).
- C) The UN Digital Connectivity Index (DCI).
- D) The UN Public Service Delivery Index (PSDI).

7. The relationship between the Philippines and Japan has deepened, with a recent elevation to a new partnership level. What is the highest tier of diplomatic framework that the Philippines and Japan formalized in May 2026?

- A) Enhanced Strategic Partnership.
- B) Comprehensive Strategic Partnership.
- C) Mutual Defense Treaty.
- D) Economic Cooperation Agreement.

8. The Philippines has been noted for its high social media usage. In relation to news consumption, how does the Reuters Institute's Digital News Report 2025 characterize the role of social media and video networks in the Philippines compared to traditional outlets?

- A) They are beginning to be used, but traditional outlets still dominate.
- B) They rival or even surpass traditional outlets as sources of news.
- C) They are primarily used for entertainment and not for news consumption.
- D) Their influence is limited to younger demographics.

9. Concerns have been raised about foreign influence operations in the Philippines' digital space. Which country has been accused of funding social media campaigns to undermine U.S. interests and influence public opinion online?

- A) Russia
- B) North Korea
- C) China
- D) Iran

10. The Philippine government aims to bridge the digital divide. Which of the following is a key initiative aimed at boosting broadband connectivity nationwide, especially in remote areas?

- A) The establishment of the National Artificial Intelligence Roadmap.
- B) The approval of the Philippine Digital Infrastructure Project worth $288 million.
- C) The implementation of the eTravel subsystem for faster immigration processing.
- D) The creation of the Center for Artificial Intelligence Research (CAIR).