

Philippines 2025 Holiday Intel: Unpacking Key Dates, New Rules & Cultural Nuances

Philippine Holidays · Answer Key · 10 Questions

1. According to Proclamation No. 727, which of the following is designated as a 'Special (Working) Day' in the Philippines for 2025, distinct from regular or special non-working holidays?

- A) Ninoy Aquino Day
- B) Chinese New Year
- C) EDSA People Power Revolution Anniversary
- D) All Saints' Day Eve

2. President Ferdinand Marcos Jr. signed Proclamation No. 727, which outlines the Philippine holiday schedule for 2025. Which religious holiday's date is determined by Islamic astronomical calculations and recommended by the National Commission on Muslim Filipinos, with its exact date to be confirmed closer to the event?

- A) Chinese New Year
- B) Eid'l Fitr
- C) Feast of the Immaculate Conception of Mary
- D) Labor Day

3. In 2025, All Saints' Day falls on a Saturday. For the observance of All Saints' Day Eve, what date is designated as a special non-working day?

- A) October 30
- B) November 1
- C) October 31
- D) November 2

4. Proclamation No. 727 for 2025 designates several special non-working days. Which of these is NOT included in the list of special non-working days for 2025?

- A) Black Saturday
- B) Christmas Eve
- C) Rizal Day
- D) Ninoy Aquino Day

5. The Iglesia ni Cristo (INC) Founding Anniversary on July 27, 2025, is declared a special non-working day nationwide. What proclamation number officially declared this specific holiday observance?

- A) Proclamation No. 727
- B) Proclamation No. 839
- C) Proclamation No. 729
- D) Proclamation No. 911

6. While most holidays have fixed dates or are determined by specific calendars, which of the following holidays in the Philippines for 2025 has its date recommended by the National Commission on Muslim Filipinos, based on the Islamic calendar or astronomical calculations?

- A) Chinese New Year
- B) Bonifacio Day
- C) Eid al-Adha
- D) New Year's Day

7. For the year 2025, Malacañang declared a total of 18 national observances, including regular holidays and special non-working days. Which of these dates is officially declared as a 'Special Working Day' in the Philippines for 2025?

- A) All Saints' Day
- B) Christmas Day
- C) EDSA People Power Revolution Anniversary
- D) Labor Day

8. Considering the 'holiday economics' principle, which of the following holidays in 2025 was moved to a Friday to create a longer weekend, while ensuring its historical significance is maintained?

- A) National Heroes' Day
- B) Independence Day
- C) Ninoy Aquino Day
- D) Araw ng Kagitingan

9. In 2025, the observance of 'Undas' includes All Saints' Day on November 1st, which falls on a Saturday. What is the status of All Saints' Day itself in 2025 as per Proclamation No. 727?

- A) Regular Holiday
- B) Special Working Day
- C) Special Non-Working Day
- D) Observance Day

10. President Ferdinand Marcos Jr. signed Proclamation No. 727, listing the holidays for 2025. Which of these dates is NOT a declared national holiday (either regular or special non-working) in the Philippines for 2025?

- A) Feast of the Immaculate Conception of Mary
- B) First Philippine Republic Day
- C) Christmas Eve
- D) Chinese New Year