

BRICS Buzz: Viral Memes, Currency Rumors, and AI Governance Take Center

BRICS Politics · Practice Test · 8 Questions

1. A significant viral discussion surrounding BRICS in late 2024 and early 2025 involved claims of an officially launched joint currency. What was the reality behind these claims?

- A) BRICS officially launched a new digital currency that is now in circulation.
- B) A mock-up of a 'BRICS bill' was presented at a summit, but no official currency was launched.
- C) BRICS nations agreed to adopt the Chinese Yuan as their common currency.
- D) The claims were entirely fabricated with no basis in any summit discussions.

2. Which social media platform saw a surge in BRICS-related content, transforming a summit into a global media event with millions of views on related videos?

- A) X (formerly Twitter)
- B) Facebook
- C) TikTok
- D) Instagram

3. During the 2023 BRICS summit in Johannesburg, South Africa, which of the following countries were invited to become full members, significantly expanding the bloc?

- A) Argentina, Egypt, Ethiopia, Iran, Saudi Arabia, and United Arab Emirates
- B) Mexico, Nigeria, Turkey, Vietnam, Malaysia, and Thailand
- C) Indonesia, Pakistan, Venezuela, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, and Belarus
- D) South Korea, Japan, Australia, Canada, Germany, and Italy

4. What was a recurring theme in online discussions and memes comparing BRICS with other international groups, often highlighting geopolitical and economic rivalries?

- A) Comparing BRICS with the European Union's trade policies.
- B) Comparing BRICS with the G7 and the QUAD (Quadrilateral Security Dialogue).
- C) Comparing BRICS with the African Union's development goals.
- D) Comparing BRICS with the economic policies of ASEAN nations.

5. In the context of global technology governance, BRICS, with India's leadership, has been actively shaping discussions around which emerging technology?

- A) Quantum Computing
- B) 3D Printing
- C) Artificial Intelligence (AI)
- D) Biotechnology

6. Recent BRICS summits, particularly under Brazil's presidency, have emphasized cooperation in the Global South. What has been a key point of discussion regarding global financial systems?

- A) Establishing a unified BRICS cryptocurrency for all member states.
- B) Increasing reliance on the US Dollar for all inter-BRICS trade.
- C) Restructuring voting power in the World Bank and IMF, and exploring alternatives to dollar dominance.
- D) Mandating that all BRICS trade be conducted in gold reserves.

7. The expansion of BRICS has been a significant development. Which of these countries became a full member of BRICS in 2025, adding to the bloc's diversity?

- A) Nigeria
- B) Indonesia
- C) Vietnam
- D) Malaysia

8. During discussions about de-dollarization and alternative trade systems, which of the following has been a major point of contention or differing opinion among BRICS members?

- A) India's strong advocacy for immediate adoption of a single BRICS currency, opposed by Russia.
- B) Russia and Iran's push for a unified currency versus other members' preference for interoperable digital payment systems.
- C) China's insistence on the Yuan becoming the sole reserve currency, rejected by all other members.
- D) Brazil's proposal to replace the dollar with renewable energy credits as the primary trading mechanism.