

South Korea's Newly Reinstated Constitution Day and Key Extended Public Holidays

Holidays · Practice Test · 5 Questions

1. Which national holiday was reinstated in South Korea for 2026 after being removed from the official calendar in 2008?

- A) Arbor Day
- B) Constitution Day
- C) Foundation Day
- D) Hangeul Day

2. On what date will South Korea observe the reinstated Constitution Day in 2026, creating an extended weekend?

- A) July 15, 2026 (Wednesday)
- B) July 17, 2026 (Friday)
- C) August 15, 2026 (Saturday)
- D) September 24, 2026 (Thursday)

3. Beyond Constitution Day, which other day was designated as an official public holiday in South Korea starting in 2026, honoring workers' rights?

- A) Parents' Day
- B) Teachers' Day
- C) Workers' Day
- D) Farmers' Day

4. How many days will South Koreans observe for the Chuseok (Korean Thanksgiving Day) holiday in September 2026, including the main day and associated holidays?

- A) 2 days
- B) 3 days
- C) 4 days
- D) 5 days

5. When does South Korea observe a substitute public holiday for Liberation Day in 2026, given that Liberation Day itself falls on a Saturday?

- A) August 14 (Friday)
- B) August 16 (Sunday)
- C) August 17 (Monday)
- D) August 18 (Tuesday)