

South Korea's Latest Space Milestones: KASA, Nuri, and Accelerated Lunar G

Space Exploration · Practice Test · 4 Questions

1. What major event related to South Korea's military space program was postponed on June 30, 2026, due to safety concerns?

- A) The launch of its first crewed mission
- B) The inaugural flight of a new heavy-lift rocket
- C) The launch of a fully assembled four-stage solid-fuel space rocket
- D) The deployment of a new space station module

2. Which private company took the lead in operating South Korea's fourth Nuri rocket launch in November 2025?

- A) Korea Aerospace Research Institute (KARI)
- B) SpaceX
- C) Hanwha Aerospace
- D) Korean Air

3. When was the Korea AeroSpace Administration (KASA) officially established, marking a new phase for South Korea's national space efforts?

- A) August 2023
- B) May 2024
- C) January 2025
- D) June 2026

4. South Korea successfully launched its first privately built Earth Observation satellite in May 2026. What is the name of this satellite?

- A) KOMPSAT-7
- B) Danuri-2
- C) CAS500-2
- D) Arirang-6