

South Asian Style in 2026: Sustainable Textiles, Thriving RMG, and Global Culture

Fashion Trends · Practice Test · 6 Questions

1. What major global fashion trend is India actively leading in 2026, particularly with its rich heritage in natural fibers?

- A) Fast Fashion Production
- B) Mass Market Synthetics
- C) Sustainable Textiles and Circular Fashion
- D) Luxury Footwear Manufacturing

2. Which South Asian country is projected to cross the $50 billion mark in garment exports by 2026, solidifying its position as the world's second-largest apparel exporter?

- A) Sri Lanka
- B) Pakistan
- C) India
- D) Bangladesh

3. In Pakistan, what fashion market segment has notably shifted from a 'survival strategy' to a 'niche trend' among Gen Z and millennials in 2026, driven by economic factors and conscious consumption?

- A) High-end Couture
- B) Streetwear Brands
- C) Pre-loved (Thrifted) Fashion
- D) Traditional Bridal Wear

4. A significant trend across South Asian fashion in 2026 involves blending traditional craftsmanship and heritage fabrics with what type of designs?

- A) Futuristic, tech-inspired silhouettes
- B) Minimalist, monochromatic styles
- C) Contemporary, everyday wear designs
- D) Heavy, ceremonial attire

5. At major international events like Coachella in 2026, what aspect of South Asian culture is increasingly being showcased and celebrated by artists and influencers?

- A) Traditional culinary arts
- B) Classical dance forms
- C) Authentic South Asian fashion and craftsmanship
- D) Ancient architectural designs

6. How is Artificial Intelligence (AI) impacting the South Asian textile and apparel industry in 2026, beyond just better shopping experiences?

- A) Exclusively for celebrity endorsements
- B) Only in fast fashion production
- C) For enhanced fabric inspection, fiber identification for recycling, and demand forecasting
- D) Mainly for creating virtual fashion shows