

2026 Global Holiday Shifts: UN Resolutions, UNESCO Themes & New Regional

Global Holidays · Answer Key · 5 Questions

---

1. Which public holiday is newly designated as a statutory holiday in Hong Kong starting from 2026?

- A) The day following the Mid-Autumn Festival
- B) Chung Yeung Festival
- C) Easter Monday
- D) The Birthday of the Buddha

2. Effective from its eighty-first session in 2026, what new policy has the UN General Assembly adopted regarding proposals for new international commemorations?

- A) All new proposals will be fast-tracked for immediate approval.
- B) Consideration of new proposals for international days, weeks, months, years, or decades will be put on hold for a trial basis.
- C) New proposals must now be co-sponsored by at least five member states.
- D) Only proposals related to climate change will be considered.

3. What is the specific theme for the 2026 International Day for Digital Learning, designated by UNESCO?

- A) Advancing Digital Literacy for All Age Groups
- B) Leveraging AI for Personalized Education
- C) Building Digital Futures for Public Education
- D) Ensuring Equitable Access to Online Learning Resources

4. On the International Day of Education in 2026, what new global measurement will UNESCO release, specifically assessing youth participation?

- A) Youth employment rates in the education sector.
- B) Student and youth participation in education legislation and policymaking.
- C) Global youth literacy rates and digital proficiency.
- D) The impact of youth-led educational initiatives on sustainable development goals.

5. Which of the following is designated as a UN International Year for 2026?

- A) International Year of Sustainable Energy Access
- B) International Year of Youth Development
- C) International Year of the Woman Farmer
- D) International Year of Global Health Research