

Africa's Green Revolution: Great Green Wall, AI, and Youth Climate Action in 2026

Environmental News · Answer Key · 4 Questions

1. What ambitious environmental project, spanning approximately 8,000 kilometers across the Sahel region, aims to restore degraded land, tackle desertification, and improve food security in Africa by 2030?

- A) The Sahara Reforestation Project
- B) The African Eco-Corridor Initiative
- C) The Great Green Wall
- D) The Sahel Climate Adaptation Plan

2. In a statement marking Africa Day 2026, environmental advocacy groups condemned the continuous exportation of hazardous waste from developed countries to African nations, labeling this practice as what?

- A) Resource Exploitation
- B) Environmental Imperialism
- C) Waste Colonialism
- D) Greenwashing Africa

3. At the 2026 ECOSOC Youth Forum, African climate youth leaders emphasized the critical role of what specific resource in driving climate solutions, connecting agriculture, livelihoods, and ecosystems?

- A) Mineral Resources
- B) Water Security
- C) Forest Protection
- D) Air Quality

4. In 2026, which renewable energy source is identified as a major force behind sustainable development and economic expansion across Africa, driven by year-round abundance and significant investments in large-scale farms and mini-grids?

- A) Wind Energy
- B) Geothermal Power
- C) Hydropower
- D) Solar Energy