

China's Recent Global Health Diplomacy: Major Pledges and Collaborations (2

Global Health · Answer Key · 5 Questions

1. What significant financial pledge did China make to the World Health Organization (WHO) in May 2025?

- A) $100 million over two years
- B) $250 million over three years
- C) $500 million over five years
- D) $1 billion over ten years

2. In September 2025, what new institution dedicated to global health equity did China launch in Shanghai?

- A) China International Medical Research Center
- B) Global Health Innovation Institute
- C) Shanghai Center for Disease Control and Prevention
- D) East Asian Public Health Alliance

3. Which of the following is an example of China's Health Silk Road strategy in late 2025, focusing on pharmaceutical manufacturing in Africa?

- A) Building a new hospital in Egypt
- B) Establishing a vaccine research lab in South Africa
- C) Planning an insulin-production facility in Nigeria
- D) Sending medical teams to Kenya

4. At the 79th World Health Assembly in May 2026, China co-launched an initiative with several countries. What was its focus?

- A) Global vaccination campaigns for neglected diseases
- B) Strengthening health systems in the digital and intelligent era
- C) Emergency response protocols for future pandemics
- D) Cross-border regulation of traditional medicine

5. In its international development engagement, China emphasizes a concept of "foreign aid" rooted in what principle, often rejecting traditional "donor-recipient" terminology?

- A) Conditional assistance based on economic reforms
- B) Unilateral support for humanitarian crises
- C) Mutual benefit and South-South cooperation
- D) Strict adherence to Western-defined aid frameworks