

Digital Health and Modern Healthcare Tools

Healthcare Technology · Answer Key · 11 Questions

1. What are digital tools in the context of healthcare?

- A) Physical medical instruments
- B) Online platforms or software for optimized functions
- C) Paper-based medical files
- D) Hospital furniture

2. How is online health information defined?

- A) Information printed in newspapers
- B) Health-related info available on the internet
- C) Information shared only by doctors in person
- D) Radio broadcasts

3. What is the primary goal of digital health?

- A) To replace all doctors
- B) To increase hospital costs
- C) To enhance the efficiency of healthcare and society
- D) To eliminate the need for medicine

4. What are Personal Health Records (PHRs)?

- A) Public records of all citizens
- B) Electronic versions of a patient's medical record
- C) Insurance company financial statements
- D) A doctor's private diary

5. Which of the following can be tracked using healthcare apps?

- A) Stock market prices
- B) Blood pressure and activity levels
- C) Local weather forecasts
- D) Grocery prices

6. What is the main benefit of telehealth?

- A) It eliminates the need for medicine
- B) It allows remote consultations using technology
- C) It creates new diseases
- D) It provides free hospital beds

7. In what way is Virtual Reality (VR) used in healthcare?

- A) To perform surgery automatically
- B) To provide pain relief and exposure therapy
- C) To replace medical school
- D) To manufacture drugs

8. How is Artificial Intelligence (AI) currently used in digital health?

- A) To create chatbots and personalized medicine
- B) To clean hospital rooms
- C) To transport patients
- D) To cook hospital meals

9. What is the primary function of Electronic Health Records (EHRs)?

- A) To track patient social media
- B) To store and manage patient health information
- C) To process insurance payments only
- D) To book travel for patients

10. What does mHealth refer to?

- A) Mental health counseling only
- B) The use of mobile devices to deliver health services
- C) Manual health record keeping
- D) Military health standards

11. Which of these is a noted benefit of mHealth?

- A) Increasing access to healthcare
- B) Decreasing communication with doctors
- C) Making healthcare more expensive
- D) Reducing the need for patient engagement