

South Korea's Major Holiday Transformations: Chuseok, Seollal, and Hangeul

Korean Holidays · Answer Key · 1 Questions

1. Which of the following trends is increasingly observed during South Korea's Chuseok holiday, reflecting evolving social structures and individual preferences?

A) An increase in large, multi-generational family gatherings at ancestral homes for the entire three-day period.

B) A notable decrease in gift-giving, with families prioritizing shared experiences over material exchanges.

C) A rise in "honchujok" (solo celebrants) opting for ready-made holiday meals or international travel during the break.

D) A renewed emphasis on strictly traditional charye rituals, with less flexibility in ceremony layouts and offerings.