

July 2026 US Political Updates: White House Quantum Directives, Trump's Fo

US Politics · Practice Test · 5 Questions

1. What recent White House initiative focused on advancing quantum innovation and securing the nation against advanced cryptographic attacks?

- A) The Secure Tech Act
- B) The Quantum Leap Initiative
- C) Executive Orders on Quantum Innovation and Security
- D) The National Cybersecurity Directive

2. Which significant infrastructure project was announced by President Trump on July 6, 2026, for the White House?

- A) Construction of new West Wing offices
- B) A heavily fortified White House ballroom and military center with a drone port
- C) Expansion of the White House press briefing room
- D) Renovation of the Oval Office

3. What was the Supreme Court's decision on July 1, 2026, concerning birthright citizenship in the United States?

- A) It overturned birthright citizenship.
- B) It upheld birthright citizenship, rejecting a presidential executive order.
- C) It referred the matter to Congress for a legislative decision.
- D) It limited birthright citizenship to children of legal residents only.

4. Why did the U.S. House of Representatives go on an early holiday recess around July 1, 2026?

- A) A lack of quorum due to a health crisis.
- B) Disagreement over the national budget.
- C) A deadlock due to presidential demands for the SAVE America Act.
- D) A planned early summer break for all members.

5. A White House report released around July 4, 2026, heavily criticized the leadership and interpretive ideology of which prominent cultural institution?

- A) The Library of Congress
- B) The National Archives
- C) The Smithsonian Institution
- D) The Kennedy Center