

World of Espionage and Intelligence

History Of Intelligence · Practice Test · 12 Questions

1. What is the name of the secret message writing method where ink becomes visible only when heated?

- A) Invisible ink
- B) Binary code
- C) Cipher wheel
- D) Morse code

2. During the American Revolutionary War, which famous spy ring used a clothesline to signal messages?

- A) The Culper Spy Ring
- B) The Midnight Riders
- C) The Continental Network
- D) The Liberty Spies

3. What is the common term for a person who secretly works for one country while pretending to be loyal to another?

- A) Diplomat
- B) Double agent
- C) Journalist
- D) Merchant

4. Which famous female spy during the American Civil War was known for using her social status to gather information for the Confederacy?

- A) Harriet Tubman
- B) Rose O'Neal Greenhow
- C) Clara Barton
- D) Elizabeth Van Lew

5. What device was used by the Germans during World War II to encrypt their military communications?

- A) Enigma machine
- B) Abacus
- C) Telegraph
- D) Printing press

6. What is the name of the process of turning a plain message into a secret, unreadable code?

- A) Decoding
- B) Encryption
- C) Translation
- D) Printing

7. Who was the famous British mathematician who helped crack the Enigma code at Bletchley Park?

- A) Isaac Newton
- B) Alan Turing
- C) Charles Babbage
- D) Stephen Hawking

8. What type of bird was famously used during World War I and World War II to carry secret messages across enemy lines?

- A) Falcon
- B) Eagle
- C) Carrier pigeon
- D) Owl

9. What is the term for the act of intercepting and listening to private communications between two parties?

- A) Surveillance
- B) Bugging
- C) Wiretapping
- D) All of the above

10. Which US intelligence agency is primarily responsible for gathering information from foreign countries?

- A) CIA
- B) FBI
- C) NASA
- D) EPA

11. What is a 'dead drop' in the world of espionage?

- A) A secret meeting place for spies to hand over items
- B) A location where items are hidden for another person to pick up later
- C) A failed mission
- D) A signal used to warn of danger

12. During the Cold War, which city was famously divided by a wall and became a major hub for spying activity?

- A) London
- B) Berlin
- C) Paris
- D) Rome