

Cosmic Interiors: An Interior Design Quiz

Interior Design · Answer Key · 10 Questions

1. Which celestial body is known for its prominent rings, often inspiring circular motifs in interior design?

- A) Mars
- B) Jupiter
- C) Saturn
- D) Venus

2. The 'deep space' aesthetic in interior design often utilizes dark blues and blacks, mirroring the color of:

- A) Earth's atmosphere during the day
- B) The surface of the Moon
- C) The vacuum of space
- D) The rings of Saturn

3. A design element that mimics the texture of lunar surfaces might incorporate materials with a:

- A) Glossy, reflective finish
- B) Rough, matte texture
- C) Smooth, polished surface
- D) Translucent, layered appearance

4. The 'Martian red' color palette, seen in some interiors, is directly inspired by the planet:

- A) Mars
- B) Mercury
- C) Venus
- D) Uranus

5. When incorporating 'galaxy' themes into interior design, designers might use swirling patterns reminiscent of:

- A) Asteroid belts
- B) Nebulae
- C) Comet tails
- D) Planetary orbits

6. The concept of 'zero gravity' in interior design might influence the placement of furniture, suggesting:

A) Heavy, grounded pieces

B) Suspended or floating elements

C) Strictly symmetrical arrangements

D) Items exclusively at floor level

7. A design inspired by the 'cosmic dust' effect often involves using:

A) Bold, solid colors

B) Sparkling or iridescent finishes

C) Matte, uniform textures

D) Heavy, opaque materials

8. The shape of certain planetary moons, like Io or Europa, could inspire the use of which form in interior design?

A) Sharp, angular shapes

B) Irregular, organic curves

C) Perfect geometric spheres

D) Straight, parallel lines

9. The 'aurora borealis' phenomenon, known for its vibrant, shifting colors, could influence interior design through:

A) Monochromatic color schemes

B) Dynamic, gradient lighting

C) Static, single-color walls

D) Textured, opaque surfaces

10. Interior design elements inspired by the solar flare phenomenon might feature:

A) Calm, muted tones

B) Energetic, radiating patterns

C) Subtle, hidden details

D) Minimalist, uncluttered spaces