

Environmental Diplomacy Challenge

Diplomacy · Practice Test · 5 Questions

1. Which animal is famously used by China as a diplomatic gift to other countries, symbolizing friendship and good relations?

- A) Giant Panda
- B) Red Panda
- C) Snow Leopard
- D) Siberian Tiger

2. Which international agreement regulates the global trade of endangered wild animals and plants to prevent their overexploitation?

- A) Kyoto Protocol
- B) Paris Agreement
- C) CITES
- D) Montreal Protocol

3. What major international body implemented a moratorium on commercial whaling in 1986 to protect whale populations?

- A) Greenpeace
- B) World Wildlife Fund
- C) International Whaling Commission (IWC)
- D) United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP)

4. The Antarctic Treaty System designates Antarctica as a continent primarily for what purpose, banning military activity and promoting scientific research?

- A) Commercial fishing
- B) Mining operations
- C) Scientific research and environmental protection
- D) Tourism development

5. Which international treaty focuses on the conservation and wise use of wetlands, recognizing their ecological importance?

- A) Desertification Convention
- B) Biodiversity Convention
- C) Ramsar Convention
- D) Climate Change Convention