

Introduction to Poetry and Scansion

Literature · Answer Key · 5 Questions

1. What is the process of analyzing the metrical pattern of a poem called?

- A) Rhyming
- B) Scansion
- C) Stanza structure
- D) Alliteration

2. Which famous poem by Robert Frost is mentioned in the text?

- A) The Road Not Taken
- B) Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening
- C) Fire and Ice
- D) Nothing Gold Can Stay

3. What is used to indicate a rhyme scheme at the end of lines?

- A) Numbers
- B) Symbols
- C) Letters
- D) Colors

4. Which meter is mentioned as one of the most common?

- A) Iambic tetrameter
- B) Dactylic hexameter
- C) Trochaic trimeter
- D) Anapestic pentameter

5. What does a rhyme scheme represent in a poem?

- A) The number of stanzas
- B) The rhythm of the words
- C) The pattern of rhymes at the end of lines
- D) The tone of the author