

Global Cultural Geographies

Cultural Studies · Practice Test · 2 Questions

1. Which geographical region is most historically recognized as the earliest significant hub for the cultivation and social consumption of coffee, predating its widespread adoption in Europe?

- A) The highlands of Ethiopia
- B) The Arabian Peninsula (Yemen)
- C) The Ottoman Empire (Turkey)
- D) The Brazilian Atlantic Forest

2. The concept of 'Songlines' or 'Dreaming tracks', which are integral to Indigenous Australian cultures, are primarily linked to the navigation and cultural mapping of which vast geographical feature?

- A) The Great Barrier Reef's coastal waters
- B) The central arid and semi-arid regions of the Outback
- C) The alpine regions of the Great Dividing Range
- D) The tropical rainforests of North Queensland