

The Great Depression in Germany

Economics · Practice Test · 7 Questions

1. What period is primarily discussed in the text?

- A) 1924-1928 and 1929-1932
- B) 1930-1935
- C) 1920-1925
- D) 1938-1940

2. What economic event is mentioned in relation to 1929?

- A) Stock market crash
- B) Industrial boom
- C) Agricultural surplus
- D) Trade surplus

3. What term describes the rapid increase in prices mentioned in the text?

- A) Inflation
- B) Deflation
- C) Recession
- D) Depression

4. What happened to shares on a single day in 1929?

- A) They dropped significantly
- B) They increased greatly
- C) They remained stable
- D) They were nationalized

5. What was the economic situation between 1929 and 1932?

- A) Severe downturn
- B) Rapid recovery
- C) Stable growth
- D) Technological advancement

6. What is mentioned about people selling their possessions?

- A) They had to sell their shares
- B) They were forced to sell their homes
- C) They sold their belongings to survive
- D) They were encouraged to invest

7. What does the text imply about the economic state of Germany during these periods?

- A) It was a period of crisis
- B) It was a period of prosperity
- C) It was a period of innovation
- D) It was a period of rebuilding