

Introduction to Sports Science Basics

Sports Science · Answer Key · 1 Questions

1. What is the main function of muscles in the human body during physical activity?

A) Produce movement

B) Store excess energy as fat

C) Protect internal organs from impact

D) Regulate body temperature primarily