

Animals & Habitats: Scientific Facts

Biology · Practice Test · 9 Questions

1. What characteristic do all mammals share?

- A) They lay eggs.
- B) They have scales.
- C) They produce milk.
- D) They live only in water.

2. What unique body covering do birds have that helps them fly and stay warm?

- A) Fur
- B) Scales
- C) Feathers
- D) Shells

3. How do most fish breathe underwater?

- A) Using lungs
- B) Through their skin
- C) With gills
- D) By holding their breath

4. Which of these is a common characteristic of reptiles?

- A) They have moist skin.
- B) They produce milk for their young.
- C) They have scales.
- D) They undergo metamorphosis.

5. What is a key feature of amphibians' life cycle?

- A) They only live in the ocean.
- B) They have dry, scaly skin.
- C) They undergo metamorphosis.
- D) They are warm-blooded.

6. What is a habitat?

- A) A type of food an animal eats.
- B) The natural environment where an animal lives.
- C) A small cage for pets.
- D) A place where animals hunt.

7. Which animal is well-adapted to live in the cold, icy environment of the Arctic?

- A) Camel
- B) Lion
- C) Polar Bear
- D) Monkey

8. What is a primary characteristic of a desert habitat?

- A) Abundant rainfall
- B) Very cold temperatures year-round
- C) High humidity
- D) Very little rainfall

9. Which of these organisms is a primary inhabitant of coral reefs in the ocean?

- A) Giraffe
- B) Penguin
- C) Sea Turtle
- D) Spider