

Scientific Perspectives on World Religions

World Religions · Practice Test · 10 Questions

1. Which religion is historically recognized as the oldest of the major world religions?

- A) Islam
- B) Hinduism
- C) Christianity
- D) Buddhism

2. In which modern-day country did the religion of Buddhism originate?

- A) India
- B) China
- C) Japan
- D) Thailand

3. The Torah is the central reference text for which major world religion?

- A) Islam
- B) Sikhism
- C) Judaism
- D) Taoism

4. The Five Pillars are the foundational acts of worship in which religion?

- A) Buddhism
- B) Hinduism
- C) Islam
- D) Jainism

5. Which religious tradition is associated with the historical figure Siddhartha Gautama?

- A) Shinto
- B) Buddhism
- C) Confucianism
- D) Zoroastrianism

6. The city of Jerusalem is considered a significant historical site for which three monotheistic religions?

- A) Hinduism, Buddhism, Sikhism
- B) Judaism, Christianity, Islam
- C) Taoism, Shinto, Baha'i
- D) Jainism, Confucianism, Islam

7. What is the primary language in which the Quran was originally written?

- A) Hebrew
- B) Sanskrit
- C) Arabic
- D) Latin

8. Which religion is primarily associated with the practice of the 'Eightfold Path'?

- A) Buddhism
- B) Hinduism
- C) Shinto
- D) Christianity

9. The Ganges River is considered a sacred geographical site primarily by followers of which religion?

- A) Islam
- B) Judaism
- C) Hinduism
- D) Sikhism

10. Which religious text contains the New Testament?

- A) The Vedas
- B) The Bible
- C) The Guru Granth Sahib
- D) The Analects