

Money and Jobs for Everyone!

Macroeconomics · Practice Test · 10 Questions

1. What do people use to buy things like toys and food?

- A) Stones
- B) Leaves
- C) Money
- D) Sand

2. When many people have jobs, what does that mean for the country?

- A) Everyone is sad
- B) Lots of people can buy things
- C) Nobody has anything
- D) The country is empty

3. What is it called when a country makes lots of things and sells them?

- A) Shopping
- B) Trading
- C) Growing
- D) Playing

4. If a baker makes bread for many people, what is the baker doing?

- A) Sleeping
- B) Playing
- C) Working
- D) Singing

5. What do governments sometimes build to help people move around?

- A) Tall trees
- B) Big puddles
- C) Roads and bridges
- D) Cloud castles

6. What do we call the big picture of how money and jobs work for everyone in a country?

- A) A small garden
- B) The economy
- C) A secret code
- D) A magic spell

7. When people have jobs, they often get paid with what?

- A) Stickers
- B) Money
- C) Candy
- D) Hugs

8. What helps people buy things they need or want?

- A) Eating snacks
- B) Having a job
- C) Watching cartoons
- D) Drawing pictures

9. What do we call the places where people go to get things they need, like food and clothes?

- A) Parks
- B) Schools
- C) Shops
- D) Homes

10. If a country has lots of farms growing yummy food, what are they good at?

- A) Making noise
- B) Making food
- C) Making toys
- D) Making rain