

Introduction to Sociology for Pre-Teens

Sociology · Answer Key · 10 Questions

1. What is the term for a group of people living together in an organized way, sharing laws and traditions?

- A) A city
- B) A society
- C) A family
- D) A park

2. Which of these is considered a primary social unit where children typically learn their first values and behaviors?

- A) School
- B) The family
- C) A sports team
- D) The government

3. What do sociologists call the shared beliefs, values, customs, and behaviors of a particular group?

- A) Culture
- B) Geography
- C) Biology
- D) Technology

4. In a community, what are the formal rules that everyone is expected to follow to keep order?

- A) Suggestions
- B) Traditions
- C) Laws
- D) Habits

5. What is the name for the different roles people play in a society, such as a teacher, a doctor, or a student?

- A) Social status
- B) Social role
- C) Social media
- D) Social class

6. Which of these is an example of an 'institution' that helps organize a society?

A) The education system

- B) A grocery list
- C) A rainy day
- D) A board game

7. What term describes how people interact and communicate with each other in their daily lives?

A) Social interaction

- B) Physical fitness
- C) Scientific research
- D) Digital programming

8. What is a 'community' based on?

A) Only the size of buildings

B) People living in the same area or sharing common interests

- C) How many cars are on the road
- D) The height of the local mountains

9. What do we call a tradition or practice that has been passed down from one generation to the next?

A) A trend

B) A custom

- C) A discovery
- D) A document

10. What is the main focus of studying sociology?

A) Individual plant growth

B) Human social behavior and groups

- C) The movement of planets
- D) How to build computers