

Secrets and Spies: An Elementary Introduction

Intelligence & Espionage · Practice Test · 20 Questions

1. What is a spy's main job?

- A) To bake cakes for the government
- B) To collect secret information
- C) To build new roads
- D) To teach animals to talk

2. What is a code often used for in spying?

- A) To make secret messages
- B) To draw pictures
- C) To sing songs loudly
- D) To play games

3. Which famous spy gadget is often hidden in everyday objects?

- A) A giant robot
- B) A secret camera
- C) A flying car
- D) A magic wand

4. What does 'intelligence' mean when we talk about spies?

- A) Being very smart in school
- B) Knowing important secrets and information
- C) Having a lot of toys
- D) Being good at sports

5. Where might spies try to get information from?

- A) The moon
- B) Other countries or groups
- C) Under the sea
- D) Inside volcanoes

6. What is a disguise used for?

- A) To make yourself look different
- B) To shout louder
- C) To eat more food
- D) To fly faster

7. What is 'espionage' another word for?

- A) Building bridges
- B) Spying
- C) Farming
- D) Painting houses

8. Why might a country want to know secrets about another country?

- A) To know what games they play
- B) To help keep their own country safe
- C) To share recipes
- D) To learn new dances

9. What is a secret message that only certain people can understand called?

- A) A loud shout
- B) A coded message
- C) A silly joke
- D) A happy song

10. Who might work for a country's intelligence service?

- A) Librarians
- B) Secret agents or spies
- C) Doctors
- D) Bakers

11. What is a secret meeting often called?

- A) A party
- B) A rendezvous
- C) A parade
- D) A concert

12. What is a 'double agent'?

- A) Someone who tells two stories
- B) A spy who works for two different countries
- C) Someone who likes wearing two hats
- D) A person who can see double

13. What kind of information might a spy be interested in?

- A) The weather forecast
- B) Plans for building new things or new inventions
- C) The best place to buy ice cream
- D) How to grow flowers

14. What is a safe house in spying?

- A) A house with a big garden
- B) A secret place where spies can hide or meet
- C) A house for pets
- D) A house that is very colourful

15. What does it mean to 'go undercover'?

- A) To wear a raincoat
- B) To pretend to be someone else to gather information
- C) To sleep under the stars
- D) To work in a dark room

16. What is a famous spy agency in the United States?

- A) The Fire Department
- B) The CIA (Central Intelligence Agency)
- C) The Post Office
- D) The Animal Shelter

17. What is a 'mole' in espionage?

- A) An animal that digs tunnels
- B) A spy secretly working within an organization
- C) A type of flower
- D) A small, dark spot

18. What is a secret listening device often called?

- A) A loud speaker
- B) A bug
- C) A telescope
- D) A microphone

19. What is the purpose of a 'dead drop'?

- A) To throw something away
- B) To secretly leave or pick up items or information
- C) To rest after a long journey
- D) To find lost treasures

20. What kind of skills might a spy need?

- A) Singing very well
- B) Being observant and good at solving puzzles
- C) Juggling many balls
- D) Making balloon animals