

Advanced Community Infrastructure and Public Services

Civics And Community Studies · Practice Test · 10 Questions

1. Which government entity is primarily responsible for the accreditation of professional standards for registered nurses in Australia?

- A) Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA)
- B) Department of Health and Aged Care
- C) Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia
- D) Australian Medical Association

2. In urban planning, which legislation primarily dictates the zoning and land-use development managed by local government municipal planners?

- A) Environmental Protection Act 1970
- B) Local Government Act 1989
- C) Planning and Environment Act 1987
- D) Building Code of Australia

3. What is the primary legal distinction between an 'emergency medical technician' and a 'paramedic' regarding scope of practice in pre-hospital care?

- A) Advanced pharmacological intervention capability
- B) Ability to transport patients
- C) Completion of a 4-year degree
- D) Membership in a volunteer organization

4. Which level of government in Australia holds the constitutional authority over the delivery of primary and secondary public education?

- A) Federal Government
- B) State and Territory Governments
- C) Local Municipal Councils
- D) Department of Education and Training

5. What is the primary objective of a 'Public Health Officer' during an environmental hazard investigation?

- A) Prosecuting business owners
- B) Identifying epidemiological patterns of communicable diseases
- C) Providing clinical treatment to affected patients
- D) Managing municipal waste collection contracts

6. In the context of Australian emergency services, which organisation is responsible for the management of the State Emergency Service (SES) volunteers during flood and storm events?

- A) Australian Defence Force
- B) State Police Command
- C) State Department of Justice
- D) Country Fire Authority

7. Which professional standard serves as the foundation for ethical conduct among Australian social workers?

- A) AASW Code of Ethics
- B) Human Rights Commission Act
- C) Mental Health Act 2014
- D) The Privacy Act 1988

8. What specific technical function does a 'Water Treatment Plant Operator' perform to ensure community potable water safety?

- A) Regular testing of effluent salinity levels
- B) Calibration of chlorination and filtration systems
- C) Management of storm-water drainage infrastructure
- D) Oversight of residential water billing cycles

9. Which department typically oversees the 'Community Justice Centres' that provide mediation services for residential disputes?

- A) Department of Premier and Cabinet
- B) Department of Communities and Justice
- C) Federal Attorney-General's Department
- D) State Ombudsman Office

10. What is the primary regulatory requirement for a 'Food Safety Supervisor' working in a commercial food establishment?

- A) Certification in HACCP principles
- B) Completion of a tertiary culinary degree
- C) Regular health inspections by the state police
- D) Membership in the Restaurant and Catering Association