

The Little Seed: A Study of Perseverance

Literature · Practice Test · 17 Questions

1. Which line contains a simile?

- A) Beneath the soil, a little seed lay still.
- B) The morning sun stretched out its golden arms.
- C) Its petals danced like colorful flags.
- D) The seed was small, but held a dream.

2. What comparison is made in the simile 'Its petals danced like colorful flags'?

- A) The petals are compared to the wind.
- B) The petals are compared to colorful flags.
- C) The flower is compared to the sky.
- D) The flower is compared to a dream.

3. Which line BEST demonstrates personification?

- A) Beneath the soil, a little seed lay still.
- B) The seed was small, but held a dream.
- C) The morning sun stretched out its golden arms.
- D) It pushed through stones and faced the wind.

4. Why does the poet use personification in 'The morning sun stretched out its golden arms'?

- A) To show that the sun is dangerous.
- B) To make the sun seem alive and caring.
- C) To explain how sunlight is measured.
- D) To show that the sun is physically moving its arms.

5. What does the 'little seed' most likely represent?

- A) A person who gives up easily.
- B) A person who faces challenges and continues trying.
- C) A person who is afraid of change.
- D) A person who depends completely on others.

6. Which statement BEST describes the tone of the speaker?

- A) Angry and threatening.
- B) Sad and hopeless.
- C) Encouraging and hopeful.
- D) Humorous and playful.

7. Which detail BEST supports the encouraging tone?

- A) a little seed lay still
- B) pushed through stones and faced the wind
- C) Keep going, even when life is hard.
- D) Beneath the soil

8. What mood is MOST likely created in the reader after reading the poem?

- A) Fear and anxiety.
- B) Hope and inspiration.
- C) Confusion and disappointment.
- D) Anger and frustration.

9. Which line BEST supports the idea that difficulties can be overcome through perseverance?

- A) The seed was small, but held a dream.
- B) It pushed through stones and faced the wind.
- C) Its petals danced like colorful flags.
- D) The morning sun stretched out its golden arms.

10. Which value is MOST strongly emphasized by the poem?

- A) Perseverance
- B) Wealth
- C) Competition
- D) Obedience

11. If the poet removed the final line, how would it affect the poem?

- A) The poem would become more humorous.
- B) The central message would become less obvious.
- C) The poem would no longer contain a metaphor.
- D) The poem would become completely unrelated to nature.

12. Which situation BEST reflects the message of the poem?

- A) Mark quits studying after receiving a low test score.
- B) Ana refuses to join a competition because she might lose.
- C) Carlo continues practicing basketball after struggling to improve.
- D) Liza avoids difficult tasks and waits for someone to help her.

13. How does the flower's journey contribute to the poem's message?

- A) The flower shows that success happens without effort.
- B) The flower represents how perseverance can lead to growth.
- C) The flower shows that nature is more powerful than people.
- D) The flower represents the importance of becoming famous.

14. Which interpretation of the poem is MOST reasonable?

- A) People should avoid challenges because they can be harmful.
- B) Small beginnings can lead to success when a person remains determined.
- C) Success depends mainly on having favorable circumstances.
- D) People should wait for others to solve their problems.

15. Which slogan would BEST communicate the poem's message on a poster?

- A) Success Comes Without Effort.
- B) Stay Small and Avoid Challenges.
- C) Grow Through Challenges and Never Give Up.
- D) Only the Strongest Can Succeed.

16. What does the seed's decision to keep growing suggest about a person?

- A) People should ignore their problems.
- B) People can develop resilience when facing challenges.
- C) People should depend on others to solve their problems.
- D) People become successful only when life is easy.

17. How is a student who fails an exam but studies harder similar to the seed?

- A) Both avoid difficult situations.
- B) Both depend on luck to succeed.
- C) Both demonstrate resilience and perseverance.
- D) Both succeed without experiencing difficulties.